THE MIRAGE

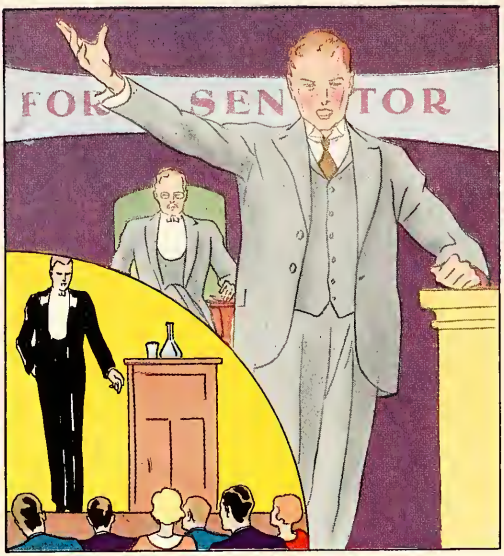
PUBLISHED BY THE
JUNIOR CLASS
DE PAUW
UNIVERSITY
GREENCASTLE, IND.

DEDICATION

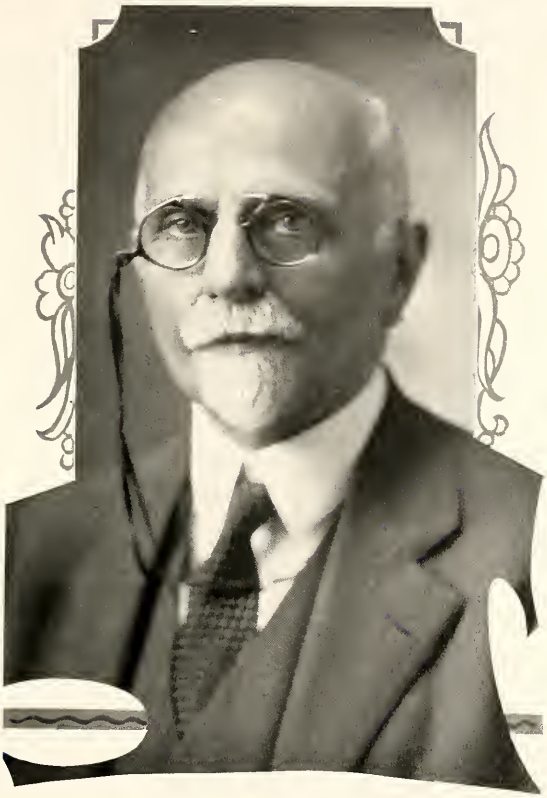


DR. HENRY BOYER LONGDEN, A.M., LL.D.

The ideal of the campus, an embodiment of DePauw spirit, Dr. Henry B. Longden commands the respect and love of three generations of students. Dr. Longden is as much a part of DePauw as the boulder itself. Fifty years as a teacher and fifty-six as a student and teacher is his record. He has risen from instructor to acting president, having served as associate professor, professor, registrar, and librarian. For a number of years he has been head of the German department and at present is serving as the director of the Edward Rector Scholarship foundation and as vice president of the University.

Because of the great esteem Mr. Edward Rector felt for him, one of the finest of new residential buildings has been named after Dr. Longden. As a further expression of the respect and love felt for him, a day called "Longden Day" has been set aside during Commencement week at which time as many as possible of Dr. Longden's former students, other friends, and associates will greet him on the campus where he has devoted a half century to the education of men and women.

It is not, however, in any outward manifestation that a fitting memorial can be found for Dr. Longden, but rather it is in the hearts of the hundreds of students who have felt the warmth of his friendship and the dynamic quality of his personality.



Henry Boyer Longden

FOREWORD

"All the world's a stage,
And all the men and women merely players;
They have their exits and their entrances,
And one man in his time plays many parts."

The scene shifts, the players change, today is yesterday, tomorrow is in the offing. The aim of the Mirage of 1931 is to present in a modernistic manner a record of college life at DePauw as it is now, as well as a view into the untold possibilities that the future holds in store. May this edition of THE MIRAGE ever serve as a reflector of happy days and busy hours well spent, endear in your hearts college memories, and ever keep alive

G. BROMLEY OXNAM, D.D., LL.D.

THE PRESIDENT

For the third consecutive year President Oxnam has continued his successful policies that have meant progress for DePauw. Asbury hall materially represents this trend of the administration toward meeting the needs of the student body. Further plans of an elaborate building program that will mean much to the campus are under way.

President Oxnam's dynamic and striking personality has entered vitally into student administration and has effected an admirable harmony and cooperation between the faculty and students.

There is but one thing more to say of such a man—that DePauw is proud and fortunate to have him.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

The Solo Flight! This is a term aviators use to designate that trying moment when a young pilot takes his ship aloft for the first time alone.

Parasitical Resistance! With this phrase, the aviator describes the resistance of those parts of a plane that do not lift.

Happy Landing! So say our intrepid heroes of the skies when a comrade sails away upon some perilous task.

To the Seniors whose records this splendid volume contains, may I simply say: On your solo flight, so near at hand, eliminate parasitical resistance, fly toward the sun, and happy landing.

May 1, 1931. G. Bromley Oxnam

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS

G. BROMLEY OXNAM

A.B., S.T.B., D.D., LL.D., Litt.D., President

President G. Bromley Oxnam, head of the administration of DePauw university, has made his presence keenly felt both through his progressive policies and his capable and energetic administration of them. To him, together with the Board of Trustees, falls the task of formulating these policies and deriving the best benefits from them by correlating the various departments. President Oxnam has been more than successful in the work he has done and in his three years at DePauw he has made a definite place for himself in the history of the University.

HENRY BOYER LONGDEN

A.M., LL.D., Vice-President

As director of the Edward Rector Scholarship foundation, Dr. Longden has become the friend and confident of many students who have found him alert to their needs, sympathetic and understanding in helping them to solve their problems. This year the Rector foundation was opened as a loan fund to deserving students who would have found it impossible to remain in school without financial aid.

Dr. Longden's keen wit has for years flavored his chapel talks so that a never-failing interest has been perpetuated. As a representative of the "DePauw Spirit" he is identified with the fine traditions that exist with the school.

VERA LOUISE WORTH

A.B., Registrar

Miss Worth's unending efforts in dealing with the infinite details of the registrar's office have won the appreciation of students, for in this work her relations have been considerate and gracious. She has shown herself to be interested in the individual adjustment of every student.

HAROLD EUGENE ROBBINS

A.B., Treasurer

Mr. Robbins has successfully and commendably handled the finances of the University for the second year since the resignation of Dr. S. B. Towne. His position requires a tireless energy and efficiency which he has shown he possesses.

BYRON HENRY WILSON

A.B., D.D., Comptroller

Last year a new office of the administration was created. This office of Comptroller was ably filled by Dr. Byron H. Wilson who is fitted for the position by many years of experience in the field of religious administration. The splendid way in which the endowment funds have been handled is demonstrative of the efficiency of Dr. Wilson.

DEANS

EDWIN POST

PH.D., Dean Emeritus

Dean Post, who was made Dean Emeritus at the close of last year, is the pioneer of DePauw professors. For over half a century he has worked untiringly in his efforts to bring DePauw to the position it now holds among other colleges and universities. He is head of the Latin department and is noted for a nation-wide reputation as an authority in Latin.

WILLIAM MARTIN BLANCHARD

Ph.D., Dean of the College

Dr. Blanchard is well known as "the busiest man on the campus" and he adequately lives up to this characterization, for as chairman of the Committee on Admission every freshman is the recipient of his attention. His enthusiasm, sympathetic and unselfish interest, and able counsel have made him the friend of many. He is one of the men with whom DePauw is definitely identified.

LOUIS HERMAN DIRKS

A.M., Dean of Men

Dean Dirks has made his role that of a counselor and friend. His contacts and dealings are characterized by careful consideration of the students. There is a fairness in his relations that stimulates rather than antagonizes the recipients of his judgments. He has ably handled his important position.

KATHERINE SPRAGUE ALVORD

A.M., Dean of Women

After a year's leave of absence, Dean Alvord is welcomed back to the administration. She is the sympathetic counselor of both men and women of the campus and although her decrees are at times stringent it is always with the deepest interest and sincere desire for the good of the University that they are made. Her influence is deep and permeating and one that will become stronger as it unfolds in the lives of those with whom she has come in contact.

ROBERT G. McCUTCHAN

B.M., Dean of Music School

Under Dean McCutchan's leadership, the DePauw School of Music has become well known for its fine qualities. He has improved the curriculum, added to the already efficient faculty, and has raised the standard of scholarship. His work with the choir has been particularly commendable as the performances of this organization have been notably successful this year.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES AND VISITORS

WHEN the founders and benefactors of DePauw university are mentioned, the Trustees, I suspect, do not have the large consideration that they deserve. The success of the institution both educationally and materially has been more largely due to them than to any other body however large. The personnel of the body has been outstanding from the beginning, made up of the prominent men of the state and nation. One is led to wonder that so early, with such small beginnings, men of such prominence were willing to join their fortunes with that of the University. In addition to many men of large business interests, there have been eight bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church, two members of the President's cabinet, one Vice-President of the United States, two United States senators, three governors of the state, two lieutenant-governors, the Attorney General of Indiana; and many bank presidents, judges, editors of prominent papers, educators, and men of letters.

There are three sources from which the University might reasonably look for its endowment and material equipment: the great church with its millions of members and money; from the fifteen or more thousands of graduates and former students; and from its Board of Trustees never numbering at any time more than thirty-four. The remarkable, almost startling fact is that at least seventy-five per cent of all the assets of the University came from this small group—the Board of Trustees.

The debt of gratitude that is owed to the Board of Trustees and to its President, Mr. Roy O. West, former Secretary of the Interior, is hard to accurately estimate, and will be difficult to pay.

STUDENT Council, a representative body, is the governing organ in matters of concern to the student body. It is the means of bringing cooperation between the student body and the administration. It is composed of four officers, elected by popular vote, the presidents of the upper three classes, the editor of the DePauw, an athletic representative, a representative of A. W. S. and W. S. A., and one from Y. W. C. A. The officers for the past year were: president, Roland Matthies; vice-president, Helen Dickinson; secretary, Alice Evans; and treasurer, William Springer. Fred Axtel, senior; Rex Moffett, junior; Wilfred Bottorff, sophomore; represented the classes, Dale Stackhouse as athletic representative; Joe Taylor, as editor of the DePauw, also served on the council. Mary McCord, Ruth Hall and Marian Gravis represented A. W. S., Y. W. C. A. and W. S. A. respectively.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

THE senior class, with its 295 members, will soon look back as alumni to the DePauw where four of its most eventful years were spent—from its introduction to the Boulder during Freshman Week to the turning of tassels at commencement.

During that first year the class worked under the leadership of Joe Kelly and Hal Binyon, presidents; Helen Dickinson and Pauline Becker, vice presidents; Ruth Hall, secretary, and Ray Ragsdale, treasurer. The loss of the scrap on Old Gold Day seemed an ill omen, for the class was thereafter unfortunate in its annual encounters.

The first half of the course was finished under Willam Springer and Edwin Boswell, sophomore presidents; Dorothea Bufler and Barbara Bergen, vice-presidents; Jane White and Elizabeth Swindler, secretaries, and Robert McKee and Clark Smith, treasurers.

With the junior year came the distinction attributed to "upper classmen", and outstanding in this period was the sponsoring of DePauw's first junior prom with Marian Gravis as Prom Queen. That night the University danced to Don Bestor's orchestra. Fred Wuelfing was class president; Marian Gravis, vice-president; Margaret Gamble, secretary; and Dain Hess and Hal Binyon, treasurers.

Starting the last quarter, the class made Fred Axtell president; Betty Lou Hunter, vice-president; Natalie Roberts, secretary; and Robert Heritage, treasurer. Frances Cauble wore the senior ring, and Ruth Hall was elected May Queen. With the presentation of seven Rector Fellowships to class members, and the winning of Phi Beta Kappa keys by fifteen, honors have come to the class, but such honors come only at the end of the course. Thus, mingled with the satisfaction of accomplishment is regret at leaving the associations of four years.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Rex Moffett	President
Elizabeth Watts	Vice-President
Marjorie Bundy	Secretary
Edward Bingaman	Treasurer

CLASS HISTORY

APPROACHING the threshold of their senior year, the junior class looks back over three years of arduous struggles in which it feels that it has rightly won the coveted honors which come to seniors.

Rex Moffett has led the class this year as president, assisted by Betty Watts, vice president; Marjorie Bundy, secretary; and Ed Bingaman, treasurer. The juniors sponsored a successful Junior Prom, March 27, in Bowman gym. Richard Meredith was chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements for this affair, the second prom to be held at DePauw.

This class seems to have a particular ability for "starting things." As freshmen they sponsored the first freshman dance, which has become an annual affair. They also startled the student body when, under the leadership of John Derkits, the class defeated the sophomores in the annual Old Gold Day class scrap. This had never before happened in the history of DePauw. Then, last year, unwilling to break the precedent it set the preceding year, under the captaincy of Rex Moffett the class added another scrap victory. The first all-university pep session and bonfire to be held before the Wabash football game was sponsored by this class in 1928.

The first election of the class of '32 held in Meharry hall during freshman week, 1928, gave the office of president to Forrest Crain; vice-president to Marjorie DeVaney; secretary to Helen Cooper; and treasurer to John Derkits. At mid-term elections George Pearce succeeded as president; Sarah Ann Bond as vice-president; Mary Beyer as secretary; and Ray Donaldson as treasurer.

The Freshman Council, made up of representatives from each campus group and the dormitories, attempted to cope with various problems that might arise and also planned the freshman dance.

Thoburn Wiant was elected president of the class the first semester of the sophomore year. Eleanor Rumpf was vice-president, Betty Snow, secretary, and Richard Turner, treasurer. The second semester Wayne Ratcliffe became president; Margaret Martin, vice-president; Rebabelle McMahan, secretary; and James Culbertson, treasurer. Last year the class also gave a dance as sophomores.

CLASS HISTORY

WITH half of their college careers behind them, the sophomores look to their upperclassman days with renewed interest. Perhaps the lure of important offices, prestige, and larger social events has spurred them during the year.

Another year has passed since they learned of the DePauw traditions—the toast, boulder, customs, and songs—and a continuous appreciation has been shown since their freshman days.

Last year the freshman council was reorganized in a different manner. This year the sophomores have seen another political change in campus alignments: witness the fall election.

During their freshman year they lost the Old Gold Day freshman-sophomore scrap before the onslaught of the Class of '32, and were not able to gain revenge this year on the freshmen. Class dances were given both years.

The officers for the two semesters of the freshman year were: Raymond Wilmarth and Donald Wheaton, presidents; Jeanette Comley and Charlotte Epple, vice presidents; Helen Maranda and Clara Mae Kirtley, secretaries; and Roy Williams and Gordon Hiatt, treasurers.

CLASS HISTORY

A YEAR has passed since the freshmen enjoyed Freshman Week when they learned the traditions of old DePauw. The class quickly adjusted itself to the new environment and has proven itself equal to the upperclasses in upholding the spirit of our college.

Because of a misunderstanding, the freshmen were unable to prove their prowess in the traditional Old Gold Day scrap, which they won by forfeit from the sophomores, but have maintained their usual pep and enthusiasm throughout the year.

In all fields of activities the freshmen proved themselves worthy. Athletically the class made a mark for itself by the fine teams produced from its numbers; scholastically it was also efficient, a high percentage of the class attaining the honor fraternities, Phi Eta Sigma and Alpha Lambda Delta. The freshman dance was held January 10 in Bowman gymnasium.

The class was fortunate enough to make its bid on the campus at an opportune time. The new alignments, politically, created much interest in freshman circles, and caused two very heated elections.

Athletics

COACHES

BY virtue of unusually brilliant performances of all Tiger athletic teams this year, major sports at DePauw were exceptionally successful. Old Gold teams conquested all parts of the state victoriously, and commendably defended their laurels against all non-Hoosier invaders. Much of this success can well be attributed to the faultless training given by the coaching staff headed by Donovan C. Moffett, athletic director.

When former Coach W. L. Hughes accepted an offer to be a member of the faculty of the graduate school of Columbia university, Mr. Moffett was selected by the athletic committee to fill the position of head of the department of physical education, in which capacity he has done exceptional work.

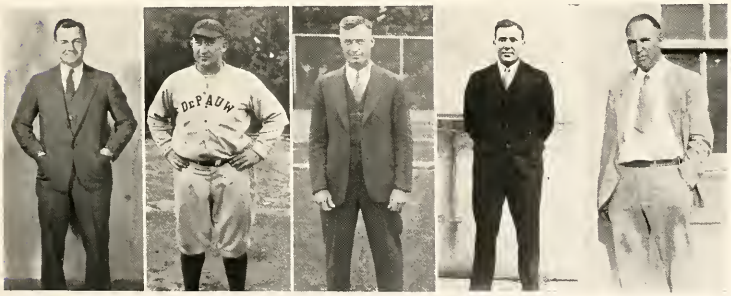
Mr. Moffett is a graduate of the class of 1922. While in college he starred on the hardwood for three consecutive years. He had three years of coaching experience at Brazil high school and one year at Lima, Ohio, before he was called back to his alma mater in 1928. In addition to his duties as athletic director, Mr. Moffett led his proteges through one of the most successful seasons experienced in basketball.

Raymond "Gaumy" Neal, line coach during the 1929 football season, was selected by the committee to fill Professor Hughes' position as head football coach. His eleven won six out of seven of the scheduled contests, and most important of all, downed the Wabash Cavemen 7-6. Before Mr. Neal came to DePauw, he attended Wabash college and Washington and Jefferson, where he was given all-American honors by national sport critics.

Coach L. C. Bucheit has achieved for himself the honor of putting on the cinders consistently winning track teams. Under his tutelage DePauw has been able to annex the Little State and place favorably in the Big State track meets during the past few years. Mr. Bucheit is a graduate of Lake Forest, later coached at Hillsdale college, and came here in 1918.

Lloyd Messersmith, of the class of 1928, is in charge of the varsity baseball squad this year as well as freshman basketball and football coach. He was basketball coach of Shortridge high school for two years and spent two additional years at Teachers' college, Columbia university.

In charge of the physical education classes is W. E. Search who has been most popular with the men of the University. He is in charge of varsity swimming, tennis, and golf teams in addition to his regular duties. He was graduated from the Y. M. C. A. college at Springfield, Mass., in 1914. He coached at Suffield school, Suffield, Conn., Griffith Institute, New York City, Bates college, Lewiston, Mass., and was physical director for the city of Bangor, Maine before he came here in 1925.



MOFFETT NEAL BUCHEIT MESSERSMITH SEARCH

MANAGERS

FIVE men have been kept busy handling the positions of football, basketball, baseball, track and minor sports this year. Elbridge Holland has made all the arrangements for the football team this year. Paul Graves held the basketball managership. John Peterson was student manager of baseball, Robert Lewis of track, and Randall Shake of minor sports. The job of the managers is to handle all the athletic equipments of their particular sport primarily. Their other duties include making all the necessary arrangements for the team in home and out of town games. They must see that the grounds are in shape for all practices and games as well as to look after the finances. The student managers go on all of the trips with the teams and keep score and records of all events.

Managers are selected from men who have worked as assistant managers from their freshman year. The sports assistants work under the managers and learn the position. The men are selected for the chief position by means of their merit and faithful attention to the job.

At the end of one year's service as manager the men are given letter sweaters with an "M" inscribed in it as according to the athletic department ruling. The positions are usually given to men who are juniors in the university.

As in any other position the managers must be scholastically eligible for the office.

FOOTBALL

WHEN Coach "Gaumy" Neal's inexperienced eleven went on the gridiron Oct. 4 to mix with Indiana Central, critics were somewhat dubious as to the outcome of the 1930 season. After fifteen minutes of play, however, it was clearly demonstrated that the former Wabash mentor had developed a powerful ball club. The Tigers came home that day on the long end of a 39-7 count.

R. RAGSDALE D. COPELAND

Nor was this an erratic early-season exhibition of football prowess, for the Old Gold squad played consistent ball all season to annex seven victories out of eight starts. Wabash and Boston university were dazzled by the Tiger offensive and defensive machine as well as five other ambitious elevens. The season score sheet shows that the Tigers counted 150 points to their opponents' 66.

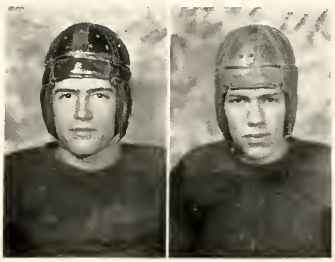
D. WHEATON M. MEYERS

After the Indiana Central victory, the DePauw squad journeyed

W. EWING O. MELBOURNE

over to Richmond to give the Earlham quakers a lesson in football. The contest was one sided and resulted 27-6, DePauw. Illinois Wesleyan was the next competitor, and although the Tigers played superior ball, the breaks fell to the Illinois team and the game ended 6-13, Wesleyan. The visitors' margin in weight proved to be the deciding factor in the tilt, the lighter DePauw line being shaded in defensive play.

Displaying a brilliant running attack that netted a touchdown in each quarter, the Old Gold eleven ran rough shod over Franklin 25-7. Wheaton and Lyons were outstanding in this contest. On Nov. 8 Coach Neal and his proteges made the longest trip of the season to Massachusetts with Boston university furnishing the opposition. Coming from behind to score 16 points, the speedy, determined Tiger outfit emerged from the game on top of a 22-7 count. The clever broken field running of Lyons and strong defensive play of Williams featured the contest.



R. MOORE R. WILLIAMS

In the most fantastic show of modern football displayed on Blackstock for a long time, the Tigers narrowly outpointed the dark horse Manchester eleven 20-24, on Nov. 15. It was simply a case in which the last team scoring would win, and DePauw rallied in the final minutes to cinch the count. Wheaton saved the Tigers from an ignominious defeat at the hands of the Wabash Cavemen when he staged a remarkable belated dash—with thirty seconds to go—for the extra point and victory, 7-6. It looked like an all-Wabash party for three quarters, but a desperate passing attack, which netted the Old Gold eleven six points in the final stanza and the point after touchdown, paved the way for a DePauw win.

H. KENNA D. STACKHOUSE

E. RICE R. HAMMOND

The following men were awarded major letters: Ragsdale, Williams, Pope, Hammond, Moore, Ewing, Leahy, Stackhouse, Myers, Stegall, Tomlinson, Copeland, Beler, Kenna, Stout, Rice, Wheaton, Lyon, Melbourne, Anson, and F. Crain.

R. STEGALL C. LYONS

The following men were awarded reserve letters; Baldridge, Bundy, Campbell, Eubank, Grossman, Hornaday, Lee, McClellan, Roy Shirey, and Zimmerman. Holland was given the major manager award.

In the spring, for a period of seven weeks, Coach Neal put his men through a rigorous practice session devoted to fundamentals. The linesmen were drilled in tackling, blocking, and pivoting; the backs in kicking, side-stepping, and passing. The practice was brought to a close by a regular game between two picked teams who fought to a nothing to nothing tie.

Spring practice has become an integral part of DePauw's football activities. It is at this time that the men are drilled personally and given attention which may mean a great deal in their future development. Some thirty men were out this spring, among whom there were many of last year's freshman squad.

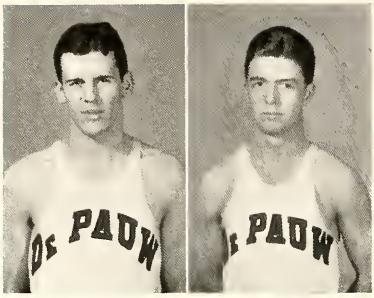
BASKETBALL



G. EUBANKS E. BOSWELL

WITH only three veterans as a nucleus around which to build some semblance of a quintet, Coach "Tubby" Moffett developed one of the strongest hardwood squads ever to wear the Old Gold. Surprisingly adept sophomore material was uncovered, and the Tigers annexed eleven wins out of eighteen contests. George Eubank, former Martinsville flash, was given the all-Indiana forward award by W. Blaine Patton, sports editor of the Indianapolis Star, while Graham and Ragsdale received honorable mention.

The Tigers chalked up 509 points to their opponents' 443 during the season. Rex Moffett, star forward, was forced from the lineup soon after the season started by virtue of a torn ligament, giving Perkins and Dawalt the chance to fill this vacancy, which they did very commendably during the remainder of the season.

Since any DePauw season is undoubtedly successful if Wabash is subdued, this year was doubly successful, for the Cavemen were downed in both of the scheduled games.

The Tigers started the season's card off auspiciously when Rose Poly was snowed under 41-19. In the next contest with Illinois, the Old Gold five couldn't find the basket and the game was lost 15-27. Indiana followed Illinois' example and took the measure of the Tiger athletes 18-26, but in the following tilt N. A. G. U. was severely trounced 33-14.

Coach Moffett's men couldn't seem to get going in the next game with Earlham. The Quakers outscored the Tigers 24-28. In the first Ohio conference tilt of the season, the Old Gold hardwood squad blazed away for a 30-21 victory over the Cincinnati five, and next Ohio university proved no match for the Tigers at Athens, DePauw winning 32-26. The Old Gold five journeyed to Delaware, Ohio for the next contest, and Ohio Wesleyan stepped out and took a 31-35 win.

On Jan. 8 the Tigers trekked up to Muncie to meet the Ball Teachers quintet. The Muncie outfit unloosed a barrage of baskets in the first half and established a lead the Tigers were never able to overcome, the game ending 23-37, Ball Teachers. On Jan. 13 the Tigers out-shot the Franklin quintet 34-31, but lost the following week-end to Miami 26-27.

The annual hardwood fracas between Wabash and DePauw was staged at Greencastle Jan. 22. The contest was close all the way, the teams being tied at half time 12-12. Ragsdale, however, covered himself with glory when he shot a basket from mid-floor in the last thirty seconds of play for the deciding point of the game, 19-18. Eubank was outstanding for the Moffett-men, playing a good defensive game and collecting over half of the Tiger points.

F. GRAHAM M. WILSON

With the Wabash victory, the Old Gold started a seven game winning streak which lasted until the end of the season. On Feb. 7 Cincinnati was trimmed 28-13, and the following week Earlham was taken into camp 31-23. Miami came to Greencastle and went home on the short end of a 29-23 count, Wabash was outclassed 30-22, and Franklin was crushed 40-32. Tiger revenge was taken when the Ball Teachers were defeated 25-21 in the final game of the season.

Nine Tiger cagers were awarded varsity letters: Copeland, Moffett, Ragsdale, Eubank, Dawalt, Graham, Naftzger, Perkins, and Boswell. Paul Graves was given the major manager award.

Scoring slams in four events, the Tigers defeated State Normal, April 16, by a score of 91 2/3 to 31 1/3. The Tigers placed first in twelve events, and took nine second places to pile up this uneven score. Ramsay was the high point man with 18 points, placing first in the 100 yard and 220 yard dashes, the javelin throw, and placing second in the broad jump.

Earlham was overwhelmed April 19 by a score of 80-46. The Tigers earned a 35-1 lead at the end of the first four events, and had little trouble maintaining a wide margin throughout the rest of the meet. Ramsay again starred, counting 13 points for DePauw. In their next meet, Bucheit's crack relay team, competing with runners from Union, Fordham, William and Mary, Lehigh, and Maryland, broke the tape at the Penn Relays at Philadelphia, April 26, in one of the most exciting contests of the meet. Union athletes led from the gun,

A. RAMSEY F. PIERCY

COACH Bucheit's crack 1930 squad of thinly clads once more brought credit and honor to DePauw by annexing all three of its dual meets, taking the Little State, and placing third in the Big State. Thus, another Tiger track team made for itself an undisputed place among the leaders in the Indiana cinder sport carnivals. Led by Captain Ramsay, the DePauw squad defeated all competitors with ease.

D. COPELAND E. BUTTON

but a spectacular finish by Captain Ramsay cut down the Union runner's lead of ten yards on the home stretch to break the tape with an advantage of five yards. DePauw's time was 3:22.6.

DePauw next easily defeated Muncie Normal in a dual meet at Blackstock Field, May 7, by a score of 86-40. The Tigers scored slams in five events, the outstanding feature of the meet being Ramsay's race in the 100 yard dash, which he performed in the fast time of :09.8.

P. GRAVES G. RANSBURG

R. KILGORE C. DeSELM

The Tiger relay team, composed of Spina, Axtell, Melbourne, and Ramsay again returned home victorious after winning the college mile event at the Ohio relays, May 3. Running a fine race to out-distance such teams as Kansas State Teachers, Pittsburg, and Detroit city college, the DePauw team finished in 3:23.5. The Tiger quarter-mile sprint relay team composed of Spina, Hogan, Melbourne, and Ramsay finished third in their event.

The Old Gold track squad captured its sixth consecutive track and field championship in the Little State track meet at Indianapolis, May 10. The Tigers scored in twelve of fourteen events and almost doubled the score on Butler, their nearest competitor. Captain Ramsay won both the century and furlong races to share high point honors of the afternoon with Button, who placed first in the discus and shot put events.

Those who received major letters were: Melbourne, Ramsay, Spina, Axtell, Carter, Julian, Kilgore, Biggerstaff, Blake, Ransburg, Button, F. Crain, and Hugh Hogan. Robert Lewis received the major manager award.

Led by Captain Ramsay and Button, DePauw climaxed a successful season May 17 at Cartier Field, Notre Dame, by placing third among the twelve schools to vie for the state title. Ramsay led the field in both the 100 and 220 yard dashes, equaling the state record of :09.8 in the former. Ramsay was the individual high point scorer. Button's winning shot put of 43 feet 6 inches was three feet better than that of his nearest competitor. Kilgore took second in the

P. KU V. SPINA

The mile relay team, composed of Ramsay, Axtell, Melbourne, and Spina, was particularly successful in its activities during the season, and it deserves special mention here.

At the Penn relays these men won a beautiful plaque of bronze which now is kept in Bowman gymnasium. At the Ohio relays they were awarded another trophy in the form of a plaque and this also has been added to DePauw's collection. A third award was acquired in the Little State meet. All of these trophies now remain here to attest the ability of these men.

K. MOODY J. BIGGERSTAFF

W. MODJESKA F. CRAIN

Besides these awards, the men were given individual medals at relay carnivals. DePauw was fortunate to have such a team, and although it was broken into by graduation, new material at hand gives promise that a team of equal ability will soon be produced.

BASEBALL

Captain

ALMOST insurmountable handicaps faced Coach "Gaumy" Neal from the beginning of the 1930 baseball season until the end. Inclement weather prevented the squad from getting necessary practice throughout the schedule, while lack of material necessitated the use of many inexperienced underclassmen. Though in the majority of the games, the Tigers were outclassed, three games were won, with Indiana Central, Wabash, and Muncie the victims of the Old Gold nine.

Babcock, Bridwell, and Wildman turned in creditable performances in the eleven game card, both Babcock and Bridwell batting around .300, and Wildman pitching excellent ball in all of the games he was entered. Lack of pitchers, poor batting, and erratic fielding were responsible for the majority of the losses.

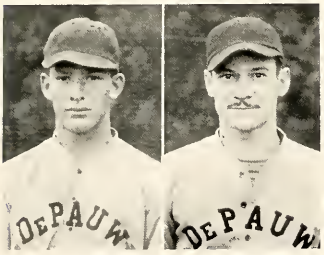
DePauw's baseball team was badly outclassed by Danville Normal in the opening game of the season on April 7 by a score of 16-8, loose play characterizing the game throughout. The powerful hitting Purdue club took the measure of the Old Gold diamond men at Lafayette in the next contest, 19-3. The game was raggedly played by both teams and was called at the end of the seventh frame because of darkness.

P. BRADBURY G. VAN RIPER

The Tigers journeyed to Indianapolis for their next contest played with Indiana Central. DePauw's belated rally seventh inning was not enough to give the Old Gold nine a victory, and the University Heights players won a close game 5-4. Both teams played well in the field, but superior bunching of hits allowed the home club to outscore Coach Neal's proteges.

B. ANSON C. WILDMAN

The Tiger nine met its fourth straight defeat in as many starts when Indiana smashed out a 13-0 victory. The state university displayed a smooth working infield and backed up fine fielding with heavy hitting. On April 25 the Indiana State batsmen took the measure of the Old Gold hitters to the tune of 9-2, while Ball Teachers added the Tiger scalp to its list of victories by trimming the DePauw squad 6-4.



K. LEFLER E. SIGHTS

DePauw crashed through with its first victory of the season when Indiana Central was nosed out 5-4, with both teams playing loose ball, allowing six errors each. The fine pitching of Wildman, who was extremely strong in the pinches, and the exceptional fielding of Hornaday, sophomore receiver, featured the out Ball Teachers on McKeen field in a well played game 1-0, while Wabash came back and snowed the Tigers under in a one sided contest, 17-0.

The following received varsity awards: Anson, Babcock, Bridwell, Bradbury, Hornaday, Lefler, O'Neal, Olsen, Sights, Wildman, G. Van Riper, and Beler. Reserve letters went to: Coate, Beall, and Hoffman. John Peterson received the major manager award.

game. Indiana State again took the Tigers into camp on May 6 by a 15-6 count.

The Tigers did the seemingly impossible on May 10 and emerged on the long end of a 10-3 score, completly outclassing the highly touted Wabash nine at Crawfordsville. The Old Gold batters showed a complete reversal of form and played stellar ball to rout the Cavemen at every stage of the game. In their last contests of the season, the Tigers shut

MAJOR SPORTS RÉSUMÉ

UNDER the direction of Donovan C. Moffett, former DePauw basketball star, the university sports department has enjoyed a most successful season in major sports. Driven by the spirit of Coach Moffett the teams and coaches have striven to give their best and the result has been evident in the many DePauw victories.

The football team won the state title of Class B champions of Indiana by defeating such schools as Manchester, Franklin, Earlham, and Indiana Central. The victory over the traditional rivals, Wabash, earned for the team the plaudits of an enthusiastic campus. The gridsters were praised by sport critics not only in the state but in the East for their vicory over Boston university. One writer even said that "the DePauw football team upheld the honor of the state by showing their superiority over an Eastern eleven". Raymond R. "Gaumy" Neal as coach trained the men and inspired in them a confidence that enabled them to obtain the record that they did. The only defeat of the season was given to DePauw by a strong Illinois Wesleyan team.

The basketball season was featured by a meteor-like rise from a poor beginning to a victorious finish. The netmen commenced the season with a series of defeats from the hands of such schools as Illinois, Indiana, Miami, Earlham, Cincinnati, and Franklin. The tide turned, however, with the Wabash game. The Old Gold aggregation was able to turn in a winning score against the Cavemen. After that contest the courtmen in playing return games with Earlham, Miami, Franklin, and Wabash were able to defeat them by large scores. These revenge victories gave the team a "psychology of victory", for the end of the season ended in a blaze of glory with the vanquishing of Muncie Normal. An additional feature of the season was the holiday basketball trip during Christmas vacation when the squad visited several Ohio colleges. Coach Moffett developed the team to its high standard.

After the high degree of attainment and national recognition of the 1930 track team the prospects for a strong 1931 team are in view. The 1930 thinly-clads won honors at the Penn and Ohio Relays. The loss of several of the best men made a gap that Coach L. C. Bucheit has filled with the stars of last year's freshman squad.

The 1930 team got off to a slow start in its season on the diamond, but was doing well at the end of the season. An inexperienced team with only two regular veterans on the squad was able to administer a victory over Wabash in one of the tightest games of the year. The feature game of the season was played against Muncie Normal. The DePauw team held the highly touted Muncie squad in a terrific pitcher's battle. The Tigers won by a one point advantage. Raymond R. Neal coached the 1930 baseball team, while Lloyd L. Messersmith, former Tiger athlete has taken over the position of baseball coach this year, and has arranged a full schedule of games both on the home diamond and away.

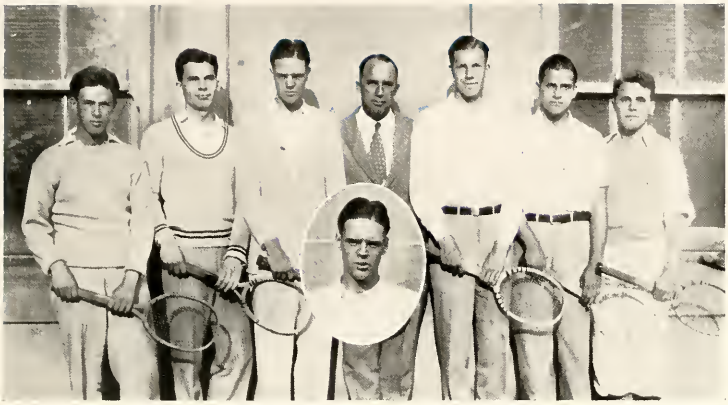
SWIMMING

THE DePauw swimming team, under the training of Coach W. E. Search, showed promise of experiencing a very successful season. After delaying practice until the opening of the second semester, the team swam only two meets before the season was ended by eliminating it as a minor sport which canceled the remaining meets.

The Old Gold swimmers easily defeated the Evansville Y. M. C. A. in the first meet, but lost a close decision to the Hoosier Athletic Club. A new record was set for the back stroke in the first meet.

The loss of Captain Wurst, state breast stroke champion, was keenly felt, but Hank Anderson, appointed Captain to fill this vacancy, did some fine work. He was given excellent support by Van Deusen, Coppinger, DuShane, McMahan, Webb, and F. Crain of last year's squad and Bradley, Powell, and L. Crain of the Freshman squad.

The prospects for next year are extremely bright, the only men to be lost by graduation being Anderson and Van Deusen. A number of the freshmen are showing great promise for the future.



J. North, W. Naftzger, L. Hughes, Coach Search, B. McCormack, H. Smith, W. Gable. Insert, Captain Hughes.

TENNIS

THE 1930 DePauw tennis team finished a difficult season with a very creditable record. Although meeting some of the best teams in the state, the Tiger netmen scored five victories and only two defeats. They won their victories at the expense of Indiana, Wabash, Indiana Central, Muncie, and Hanover. They lost to Purdue and State Normal in two very close matches.

The team this year promises to be as strong as the one last year, Captain Hughes and Buren McCormack being the only lettermen lost by graduation. Coach Search may depend on the following veterans: Naftzger, Gable, North, and Smith, lettermen; and Rieth, Ruddell, Spangler, Armstrong, and Bridwell, reserves, to carry out another successful season.

F. Beeson, E. Boswell, W. Clark, Coach Search. Insert, Captain Mountz.

GOLF

FOR the 1930 season, Coach Search was forced to build a new team, Mountz being the only veteran left in school.

The four man team composed of Mountz, Beeson, Boswell, and Clark lost the first five matches due mainly to inexperience and lack of practice. However, the team showed a great improvement to swamp Wabash in the last match and take fourth place in the State Tournament, played on the Greencastle Country Club course. In this tournament, every school with a team of note was represented, and DePauw's showing was creditable.

This year the prospects of a successful season are extremely bright with four lettermen in school including Lyons, who won the Intercollegiate Tournament two years ago, Boswell, Beeson, and Clark. In addition there are a number of promising sophomores headed by Thomas and Green.

RIFLE TEAM

THE DePauw rifle team experienced a very successful season, competing against forty-five schools and defeating twenty-one of them. Among the schools met this year were: University of Nebraska, University of Illinois, Michigan State, and University of Cincinnati. The men who turned in scores this year were: Keaton, Woodard, Johns, Lashley, Epperson, Parvin, Cole, Byers, Pritchard, Stafford, Kitchen, and Fleming.

In the rifle marksmanship record firing of the freshmen R. O. T. C. unit Mark Byers, with a total of 147 for prone, kneeling and sitting was high point man and was presented the gold medal awarded by Kenneth Hogate of New York City. Evan Crawley and Irving Epst received silver and bronze medals for second and third positions respectively.

In addition, Wendell Dygert, Harold Thompson, George Poucher, Alvin Volkman, and Robert Bradley each received medals for high scores in individual position firing.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

Although lacking the talent shown the previous year, the freshman football team won one of their two games. They defeated Wabash, but bowed to a strong State Normal aggregation. The outstanding players for the season were: Ave, Bradley, McCullough, and Lortz.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

The freshman basketball squad, although hurt by several ineligibilities, completed a successful season. The rhinies showed a good deal of power and promise for next year. The most consistent players were: Crawley, Lortz, Balspaugh, Isley, Allen, and Simpson.

FRESHMAN TRACK

The 1930 rhinie track squad was hindered by the lack of material, but easily defeated Rose Poly in their only meet of the season. Kiger, Beveridge, Dawalt, Eubank, and Moore were the best performers of the year.

FRESHMAN BASEBALL

The Old Gold Freshman nine played good baseball for the 1930 season, but lost their last game to Wabash 5-2. The oustanding player was Jordan, shortstop, who led the team both in hitting and fielding. Beaty was outstanding in the box. Chickedantz also turned in good performances.

RÉSUMÉ OF MINOR AND FRESHMAN SPORTS

DEPAUW is beginning to take more interest in her minor sports each year. Up to the present time swimming was the only sport in this group which was gone into with any great degree of enthusiasm, but now tennis and golf are coming to the front.

Good prospects for a successful year by the swimming team were ruined by a lack of funds so that the sport was dropped, at least for this season. Good material, both varsity and freshmen, was available and made a good showing in the meets at the beginning of the season.

The 1930 tennis team, with five victories and only two defeats, did a creditable piece of work. This year Coach Search has four lettermen for the nucleus of his team, and several good men in reserve.

Coach Search was not so fortunate in his golf matches during the 1930 season. This was attributed to the fact that he had only one letterman on his squad. However, after he had broken in his new men, there was a great deal of improvement and before the close of the season the team was beginning to show its true ability.

The rifle team, under the direction of Lieut. D. W. Kent, was fairly successful in its matches this season. Competition was held against forty-five schools, and the team was victorious twenty-one times.

Freshman football and basketball material looked very good this year. Although it lost its first game, the rhinie eleven came back and showed real power to beat the Wabash freshmen in the last game. The basketball team was undefeated during its season, and many good men are expected to join the varsity squad from this group next year.

Freshmen track and baseball for 1930 showed possibilities of turning out several good men for future varsity competition. The track men won their only meet, and the baseball team won three out of four games.

MEN'S INTRAMURAL

MEN'S Hall Association (1), and Phi Kappa Psi were the co-winners of the track and field meet on the 1930 intramural sports schedule.

Phi Gamma Delta again annexed the speed ball championship for the fourth consecutive year by defeating such strong competition as the Alpha Tau Omega's and the Deke's, who finished second and third respectively. Speed ball, which is a combination of Rugby and soccer, has gained prominence as the foremost intramural sport at DePauw. The game demands a high degree of muscular coordination and field generalship.

After a particularly close and hard fought preliminary tournament Delta Chi, Deke, and Phi Psi advanced to the tennis finals. The well balanced team of Delta Chi finally captured the championship with Delta Kappa Epsilon in second place and Phi Kappa Psi in third. Freshmen netmen were outstanding in the matches and should add power to the varsity sport in the future.

The 1931 school year intramurals opened with golf. The Sigma Chi linksmen headed by Thomas and Green were able to defeat all opponents to win first place. Beta and Phi Gam took second and third places respectively only after close matches determined the winners.

Beta Theta Pi proved themselves the best marksmen of the University by shooting a high score to win the rifle trophy. Delta Tau Delta finished second, with Lambda Chi Alpha a close third.

In an enthusiastic season the Men's Hall (1) basketball team emerged first in the intramural net sport after defeating Lambda Chi and Delta Tau with second and third places, respectively. This sport was featured by many tie and overtime contests.

The Phi Gam bowling team annexed first position in the bowling tournament by defeating Sigma Nu in the finals. Delta Chi followed a close third.

The intramural swimming schedule was featured by many close meets in which Men's Hall (2) came through to win the championship. Phi Kappa Psi, last year's winners, took second place and Delta Kappa Epsilon finished third. Burt Moore of Men's Hall (2) was the individual high score swimmer of the season.

Men's Hall (1) received the intramural cup for the best all round record during the 1929-1930 season. Points are given for first, second, and third places in all contests. The organization totaling the greatest number of points is awarded the trophy at the close of the intramural season.

WOMEN'S SPORTS ASSOCIATION

COED sports at DePauw are conducted under the joint supervision of the Department of Physical Education for Women and the Women's Sports Association. W. S. A. was organized not only to develop the athletic ability of particular girls but to afford all girls who are interested the opportunity to participate in any sport. Most universities and colleges conduct their athletics on the same general plan if they are members of the Athletic Conference of American College Women, a national body to which most W. S. A. groups belong. Each association that is a member must follow the constitution and by-laws of A. C. A. C. W. Intercollegiate competition for women is strictly forbidden by the National Conference.

The officers of W. S. A. for the coming year are:

Jane Rhue	President
Rebabelle McMahan	Vice-President
Martha Gregory	Secretary
Joanna Rhoades	Treasurer

Bottom Row—M. Gregory, J. Cartwright, R. McMahan, Miss M. Taylor, Miss L. Bowen, Miss R. Benton.

WOMEN'S INTRAMURAL

THE 1930-1931 season was under the leadership of Marian Gravis, president; Martha White, vice-president; Bernice Phelps, secretary; and Eleanor Ault, treasurer. Membership in the organization requires 50 initial points and 25 points each semester thereafter—points being awarded on the basis of participation in sports. At the present time a revision of the point system as it now exists is being discussed, and it is hoped that a more satisfactory arrangement may be agreed upon.

An executive council including the four officers regulates the progress of intramural and interclass sports. The managers this year have been: Rebabelle McMahan, soccer; Jane Rhue, swimming; Bernice Phelps, basketball; Mary Niblack, rifle; Jane Cartwright, bowling; Grace Beecher, tennis; Georgette Rogge, volleyball; Martha Gregory, publicity; Dorothy Hautau, track; Dorothy Thomsen, social chairman; and Peg Poucher, hiking. This year the W. S. A. board adopted a distinctive garb consisting of white coats with a small gold winged foot on the back.

Mass meetings are held each month, and different programs are arranged at each meeting. The annual Penny Carnival which W. S. A. has always given was held this year under the auspices of both W. S. A. and Y. W. C. A.

The soccer cup went to the senior class this year which is a very unusual occurrence. The junior class has won the cup during the two preceding years.

Kappa Alpha Theta won first place in the intramural swimming meet.

The intramural basketball tournament was won by Alpha Chi Omega for the second successive year. The tournament was run off in the form of a round robin.

The Tri Delts carried off the honors on the intramural rifle match and the sophomores in the interclass.

The bowling tournament went to Kappa Alpha Theta.

THE MIRAGE

John A. Stoutenour ..... Editor
Charles C. Tyler ..... Managing Editor
John C. Pollock ..... Business Manager

INFORMATION concerning the University, the student body and its activities is preserved annually in the Mirage. This year book is published by the junior class. In this edition the editors have not adopted a period theme to emphasize throughout the book, but have rather sought to make it as modern, even forward-looking, as possible. The motif of each section of the book is a glimpse into the future. The student today is compared with the man he will become tomorrow. The spirit is not one of retrospection, but is turned toward the future wherein lie opportunities for better things. In this way the Mirage attempts to embody the progressive ideal of the University.

The work of publishing the year book has been directed by John Stoutenour, editor, Charles Tyler, managing editor, and John Pollock, business manager. Sophomore assistants were Burt Moore, Fred Snyder, Charles Smith, David Thomas, Roland Campbell, and Charles Geile.

The editorial staff consists of nineteen members, each of whom have been responsible for a particular department of the book. This staff includes Elizabeth Watts, faculty; Rebabelle McMahan, sororities; Caroline Hofft, seniors; Ruth Wagoner, campus clubs; Margaret Winship, music; Ruth Klamer, seniors; Frances Kellison, trustees and humor; Elizabeth DeWees, debate and dramatics; Rozelle Rutter, women's honoraries; Bernice Phelps, juniors; Mildred Aikin, men's honoraries; Marjorie Bundy, fraternities; Mary Louise Musselman, departmental clubs and humor; Eleanor Rumpf, juniors; Sarah Hunt, fraternities and humor; Kathryn Tofaute, honoraries; Eleanor Peterson, publications; Kenneth Rhodes, index; William Clark, minor and freshman sports; Thoburn Wiant, major sports; and Rupert Kilgore, art.

THE DEPAUW

Joseph Taylor ..... Editor-in-chief
Robert Lewis ..... Business Manager
Paul Boyer ..... City Editor
Lytle Freehafer ..... News Editor

As every community must have its newspaper, so must DePauw have its organ for circulating news which is of interest to all. The DePauw, student body publication, is delivered every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday evening. The paper aims to present to the students and faculty members a fair and unbiased account of college events and activities. An opportunity for individuals to offer constructive criticism and comments on university problems is afforded through the student opinion column. News items concerning alumni and their activities are often printed. The paper is a four page publication of five columns.

Awards are made annually in recognition of efficient service of staff members. Gold matrices are given to those who have served three years and silver matrices for two years' work. These awards are made by the board of control at the annual staff banquet. The board of control is also responsible for the general policies of the paper.

Joseph Taylor has acted in the capacity of editor-in-chief during the past year. Other editors were: Paul Boyer, city editor; Lytle Freehafer, news editor; Robert Lewis, business manager; Harriet Martin, copy editor; Frances Cauble, society editor; Farrington Bridwell, sports editor; Thoburn Wiant, feature editor; Elmer Cole, proof editor; Charles Tyler, advertising manager; and Charles Teitsworth, circulation manager. The highest standards of efficiency, excellency in writing, and dependability in covering assignments are demanded of the various staffs working under these editors.

The editorial departments of the DePauw include copy, reportorial, society, and proof staffs. The copy staff consists of Charles Smith, Malcolm Kennedy, Mildred Aiken, Eleanor Peterson, Betty Watts, Wilbur Osterling, Tristram Coffin, Charles Bond, Everett Alldredge, and William Johnson. On the proof staff are Lois Fraley, Elizabeth McFadden, Betty Lupton, Hardy Ralston, James Thornburg, and Vincent Confer.

Eleanor Hughes, Wanda Lee Livengood, and Louise Link comprise the society staff. The reportorial staff has been made up of a larger group this year. The reporters are Betty Barber, Miller Baum, Charles Cring, Edgar Groark, William McGaughey, Mary Nees, Jane Rhue, Margaret Winship, Bernard Brennan, Sexon Humphreys, Martha Davis, John Millett, Stanley Niles, Rozelle Rutter, Maxine Ward, Albert Todoroff, and Paul Barnard.

THE DePauw Magazine has been edited this year by Harry McGoon, editor-in-chief, and Prof. R. W. Pence, head of the English composition department, managing editor. A board of assistants and an editorial staff aid in publishing its four issues.

A high standard of excellency is maintained in the essays, short stories, and poems which appear in the magazine. Original contributions are received from students, members of the faculty, and occasionally alumni of the University. A regular feature of the magazine is the "Book Nook", a section devoted to reviews of current books, fiction and non-fiction.

COLLEGE humor, DePauw brand, is furnished to the students through the medium of the Yellow Crab. This publication appears five times during the year under the supervision of the local chapter of Sigma Delta Chi. Philip Young has served this year as editor-in-chief, Robert Lowe as art editor, and Paul Boyer as business manager. Editorial and business staffs assist these editors.

The policy of the Yellow Crab has tended, under this regime, toward the use of more sophisticated and serious material. Articles of timely interest written by faculty members have featured some of the issues this year. Contributions of poems, and short humorous articles by students, as well as the usual number of jokes, have also been popular in the magazine.

RÉSUMÉ OF PUBLICATIONS

DEPAUW has never been able to boast of a large journalism department, and many have lamented the fact, feeling that the field of journalism should receive more consideration in the curriculum of the University. It is not enough, they say, merely to include a few courses in journalism in the English composition department. Perhaps, however, this is not such a great loss as DePauw certainly ranks on a par with other colleges of its size in its student publications.

The DePauw, the official newspaper, is published three times a week entirely by students. Positions on the staffs are obtained by try-outs and the editors are chosen each year by the board of control on the basis of previous work done on the paper. All reporters and staff members must measure up to the standards set for the paper in order to keep their positions.

The paper has a wide circulation among both students and faculty members and has proven indispensable as a means of getting news of various activities on the campus before the student body. On May Day and Old Gold Day special editions of the DePauw are published by members of Theta Sigma Phi, women's honorary journalistic fraternity. On these occasions the paper consists of eight pages instead of the usual four.

Not every college or university has a humorous magazine. At DePauw, Sigma Delta Chi, journalistic fraternity for men, sponsors the publication of the Yellow Crab, a magazine of just this nature. Contributions from students who are not members of the staff are welcome for any of the five issues published. Judging from the success of the Crab and its popularity on the campus, DePauw students evidently have a well developed sense of humor—at least those who are responsible for the magazine.

A publication of an entirely different type is the DePauw Magazine. Few universities are able to have a purely literary magazine such as this one. Original short stories, essays, and poems comprise the contents of this little paper bound volume which appears at specified times during the year. Students who succeed in getting their work published are indeed honored, as only manuscripts of the best quality are accepted by the magazine. This publication has received favorable comment in many other universities where it is known and read.

A college year book is often one of the most treasured possessions one has after graduation. In it are preserved in pictures and articles recollections of people, scenes, and activities of college life. For this reason the Mirage is one of the most important and most valuable of the DePauw publications. It is a means of recording each year outstanding events at the University.

The juniors who were selected by try outs as members of the staff this year have made every effort to see that each organization and activity is represented in the annual. It has been the desire of the editors and staffs to make this Mirage truly representative of the University, a book that everyone interested in DePauw will want to own and keep.

MUSIC

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

THE DePauw symphony orchestra, organized by Dean R. G. McCutchan and now directed by Prof. Rowland Leach, is composed of sixty student and faculty musicians. The orchestra is one of the best-known collegiate musical organizations in the state and is frequently solicited for concerts.

The orchestra has gained a notable reputation throughout the middle west by its past performances under Professor Leach who is largely responsible for its success.

Six performances were given on the campus during the year, two of which were short chapel programs that left the audience clamoring for encores. The second concert, which was presented in early March, was generally acclaimed as the best in recent years.

The orchestra practices twice a week under the personal direction of Professor Leach. Students from both Music School and Liberal Arts college, selected at annual fall tryouts represent the best musical talent in the school. Instructors in Music School who also participate in the activities of the orchestra, are in no small way responsible for its continued success.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

THE Men's Glee club was reorganized at the beginning of the school year as has been the custom at DePauw. Many new voices were admitted into the organization and permanent officers were elected. This year the club rehearsed every week under the direction of Prof. Mark E. Johnson.

The wide variety of music selected by Professor Johnson, ranged all the way from ancient Greek tragedies down to present day negro spirituals. The men in the club also sponsored a drum and bugle corps which played at the Old Gold day football game.

Due to financial circumstances no outside concerts were given this year. It is hoped by members of the club that the men will be allowed in the near future to take the trip which has been looked forward to for several years.

The officers who served throughout the year were: Wilbur Easley, president; Ray Cohee, vice-president; and P. C. Glick, treasurer.

UNIVERSITY CHOIR

THE DePauw university choir, under the personal direction of Dean R. G. McCutchan, has concluded one of its most successful seasons in recent years. Always reckoned as one of the outstanding vocal organizations in the state, the choir achieved greater fame this year than ever before in its twenty years of history.

The choir specializes in the rendition of sacred and classical music, but occasionally presents shorter and lighter programs.

Programs at two vesper services were the only appearances of the choir on the campus this year; however, numerous out-of-town engagements contributed materially to its prestige abroad. Three programs were given in Indianapolis at different times during the year. The Indiana Teachers association and the Caravan Club heard the choir during the winter. The DePauw singers also opened the Murat theater with a concert early in the fall.

In April the choir took a four-day trip, giving concerts at Mishawaka, Elkhart, and Gary on its way to Chicago, where it sang at the Sunday Evening Club and later broadcasted from WGN, Chicago radio station.

Another broadcast was given later in the year from the studios of WKBF in Indianapolis.

The student trio that took the place of the university sextet which in former years always worked with the choir, was composed of Marcia Weissgerber, violin, Mary Adaline Fausset, piano; and Marshall Howenstein, 'cello.

AMERICAN GUILD OF ORGANISTS

THE DePauw chapter of the American Guild of Organists was established in November, 1925, with the purpose of raising the standards of students majoring in organ.

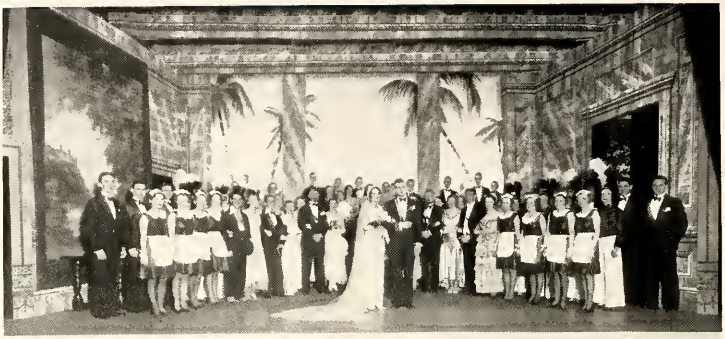
Membership is determined by scholastic standing of the students in the School of Music and the results of examinations in organ playing, theory of music, and general knowledge of music. Certificates of fellowship and associateship are granted to members who pass such examinations. Prof. Van Denman Thompson holds a fellowship, the highest honor that can be accorded a member.

The meetings this year have been devoted to a discussion of contemporary organists and modern organs, and a study of modern French composers and their works. The tracing of the developments of Christmas and Easter music occupied the club for several meetings.

This year Professor Thompson has been giving an organ recital in the Methodist church weekly every Wednesday. Members of the American Guild of Organists have appeared on this program several times.

The Guild at DePauw is affiliated with the chapter at Indianapolis. The two clubs hold joint meetings each month. At present they are laying plans for the national convention of the Guild which will be held in Indianapolis in June.

Officers for the year were: Rachel Dean, president; Adeline Kriege, secretary-treasurer; and Jeanne Ross, corresponding secretary.



MONON REVUE

THE second "Monon Revue", all-campus musical and dramatic production, was presented December 13 and 14 to capacity audiences in the Little theater.

The Revue was similar to its predecessor of the previous year in that it was entirely written, produced and directed by students of the University.

The plot of the musical comedy concerned the love of Art, a guileless college youth, for Paulyne, Princess of Durnit. The two met on a floating university managed by Solomon Shark, a hard-hearted pedagogue of the old school, who taught his students by keeping them hungry.

The affair between Art and the Princess is fraught with difficulties as the Admiral, guardian of the Princess, is determined that she shall marry the Duke of Coca-Cola. All seems hopeless for the young lovers until Barney and Oswald, two harmless sailors, discover the plot between the Admiral and the Duke of Coca-Cola to have Solomon impersonate the Prime Minister of Durnit who, by the laws of the kingdom, had to officiate at the wedding ceremony.

Faced with exposure and dishonor the two rascals consent to the marriage of Art and the Princess, and the play ends happily.

Those cast in the important roles were: Frances Patton, the Princess; Tom McNutt, Art; Charles Teitsworth, the Admiral; Joe Hutchins, the Duke of Coca-Cola; Harry Van Deusen, Solomon Shark; Paul Whitehouse, Barney; and William Robertson, Oswald.

The executive committee was headed by Ruth Klamer and Kathryn Tofaute. Martha White was dramatic director; Marian Gravis, dance director; Harold Rothert, music director; Jane Rhue, stage and properties director. The libretto was written by Natalie Roberts and Philip Young.

RÉSUMÉ OF MUSIC

DEPAUW'S musical organizations have played such an important part in campus life that they have come to be regarded as the possession of the entire University. Actual concert work in conjunction with the classroom work is the chief aim of the Music School. Liberal Arts students are also permitted membership in the Music School and are allowed to enter into its various activities. The presentations of weekly student programs, faculty recitals and individual student recitals, are well attended and enthusiastically received. This is proof that the student body is appreciative of good music.

Perhaps the most active campus musical organization during the past year has been the University choir under the direction of Dean R. G. McCutchan. The choir devotes its time to singing the best of sacred and secular music. It made a number of trips in and out of the state during the past fall, winter, and spring. During its extensive Chicago trip ,the choir sang for the Sunday Evening Club and broadcasted from WGN.

The University trio accompanies the choir on some of its trips. There is also a faculty trio which has given a number of programs during the past season.

Few universities can boast of organizations that are equal to the DePauw symphony orchestra. Directed by Prof. Rowland Leach, its pleasing selection of programs and excellence of rendition have elicited favorable comment from all sources. Membership in the orchestra now totals sixty-five selected by a committee of faculty members from competitive tryouts.

In place of the DePauw military band which played at all military functions, football and basketball games, we now have the drum and bugle corps. This organization is comparatively new but its work has been successful.

Organists are organized into the American Guild of Organists which is open only to organ majors. It was established November, 1925, as a branch of the Indiana chapter at Indianapolis with which it held monthly banquets during the past year. "Two Evenings of Opera" rounded out the musical calendar for the year. The production was in the hands of Prof. Mark E. Johnson and the cast was chosen from among his advanced pupils.

Although not falling within the scope of the Music School, the Monon Revue, presented by A. W. S., was one of the most pretentious campus productions of the year. The production was written, its songs composed, directed and enacted entirely by students.

MEN'S DEBATE

DEPAUW debate teams have gained wide recognition in forensic circles because of their excellent work. This year's varsity squad upheld the precedents of former years and enjoyed a most successful season under the guidance of Prof. Herold T. Ross.

This year a great number of debates and meets were held with schools that DePauw had never opposed. Two debates which were especially unique were those with an English team and a German team. John Millet and Milo Roberts clashed with the former, and John George and David Kingman opposed the latter.

Debates were held with Indiana Law school, Indiana State Normal, Wabash, and Earlham on the subject of Conscription of Wealth. The question of employment insurance was debated with Indiana university, Michigan, and Lake Forest. Dual meets were held with Miami university and Dayton college on this same topic. On the question of Ontario plan of liquor control the DePauw team met the University of Cincinnati.

WOMEN'S DEBATE

THE women's debate team which was organized four years ago has enjoyed a most successful existence on the DePauw campus.

The schedule of the team this year included more debates than ever before. During the year there were six regular debates and three dual meets. In about half of the meets the Oregon plan of debating was used and most of them were audience decision debates. The group of women out for debate was larger than usual.

The team was capably directed by Patrick J. Smith, speech instructor, and the successful season is largely due to his efforts. The subjects for debate were numerous, concerning such topics as the abolishment of legal censorship, unemployment insurance, abolishment of social fraternities, and the establishment of state medical aid.

The coeds encountered Miami's debaters twice during the season, as well as the coeds from Ohio Wesleyan, Albion college at Albion, Michigan, Cincinnati university, and Northwestern, and engaged in dual debates with the women from St. Mary's, Earlham, and Franklin.

FRESHMAN DEBATE

THE freshman debate team directed by Prof. Herold T. Ross and Mr. P. J. Smith, showed remarkable development during the debating season. It is expected through the capable training they have received that several debaters may be furnished for varsity competition next year.

As a part of their program, the freshman debaters have attended meetings of the varsity team, as well as debated in their own group. Through this they have gained considerable knowledge concerning debate technique and delivery.

The purpose of having a freshman squad is to acquaint beginners with the work, and to start polishing them for varsity teams. The fact that many good debaters are developed during their first year warrants the continuation of this plan.

In accordance with the regular custom, a dual debate was held with the freshman team from Indiana university the first part of May.

MASK AND GAVEL

SINCE 1925 there has been an active departmental club in the speech department, at first called the Public Speaking club and later Mask and Gavel. The purpose of the organization is to develop interest and instruction in interpretation and dramatics and to offer the opportunity for experience in public appearance.

Active members of the organization are sophomores, juniors and seniors with at least twelve hours in the department. The freshmen interested in speech are associate members.

During the first semester the organization was sponsored by Miss Jean McDowell and during the second by Patrick J. Smith. The development of the drama was the topic for discussion for the first meetings.

Plays were given to illustrate the various stages in development. A program of interpretative readings, a group of Irish plays directed by students, original skits, and a forensic program were presented during the second semester.

The officers of the club were: Mildred Farris, president; Milo Roberts, vice president; and Mary O'Rear, secretary-treasurer.

RÉSUMÉ OF PLAYS

ORDINARILY during the school year there are about six plays produced under the direction of the Speech department. Duzer Du, the Dramatic fraternity, produces three plays, the casts taken from their members, and the staging technicalities handled by them.

The first play of the year was Eugene O'Neill's "Beyond the Horizon". The play deals with the life of the farmer class under particularly tragic situations. Helen Foster, William Cragen, and Robert Orr carried the leading roles.

Ibsen's "A Doll's House" was the second presentation of the dramatic organization. The acting was particularly good, for the parts require a great deal of subtleness. Sarah Crouch and Robert Orr as Nora and Torvald Helmer did outstanding pieces of work.

Turning to a play of a lighter nature, yet full of meaning for everyday life, the presentation of Phillip Barry's "Holiday" proved equally as delightful as the preceding productions. The enthusiasm with which Linda Seton and Johnny Case set out to find real people catches us and the question of which people really live, arises. The major roles were skillfully played by Helen Dickinson, Mary Barnard, and Franklin Tooke.

Plays are produced by the Association of Women Students on May Day, the Senior class at Commencement, and the Student Council on Old Gold Day. Last year on May Day "The Youngest" by Phillip Barry was successfully produced. The "stars" were Sarah Crouch and Charles Lee.

The Senior class of 1930 chose for their final bow to DePauw audiences Aurania Rouverol's play "Skidding". The play concerns family life in the household of Judge and Mrs. Hardy in a little town in Idaho. The characters are of the sort familiar to everyone and the experiences are within the realm of ordinary life. The daughter, with progressive ideas, saves the family and the happiness of a certain Wayne Trenton III. The leads were enacted by Emma Jean Burke, Robert Kimberlin, Gladys Rohrig and Robert Orr.

On Old Gold Day a comedy, "Pals First" by Lee Wilson Dodd, was presented. The play is full of action and there is an air of something mysterious about the leading character, Danny. The two crooks are in the end set on the right path and the play ends as all good comedies should, with everybody happy and assured of long days ahead. Jack Chesterfield and Charles Niemeyer carried the weight of the play. Jean Davenport had the female lead.

The play "Tommy" was presented as the May Day this year on May eighth and ninth. This play was done by people many of whom had not appeared on the DePauw stage before. The play moved rapidly and proved very entertaining. The actors are to be commended for their clever portrayal of the roles. The heavies roles were played by Sarah Bond, Weston Bassett, and Richard Rowland. Martha McQuilkin and John Lucas had important and difficult parts.

DER DEUTSCHE BUND

DER Deutsche Bund is an organization which is interested in the study of German literature, language and customs. It was reorganized in 1925 from the old German club and in 1928 was admitted to membership in the American Federation of German Clubs. Students who are enrolled in the department of German, and others who are especially interested in German may become members of the club upon recommendation of a faculty member.

Meetings are held on the first and fourth Thursday of each month. Only German is spoken at these meetings, which are devoted to the study of German life and literature.

Early in the year, Der Deutsche Bund sponsored a moving picture, "Beautiful Germany," given in the high school auditorium. On March 25, members of the club presented Hauptmann's play, "Hanneles Himmelfahrt," in the original German.

Officers for the past year were: Cliff Warner, president; Louise Lucas, vice president; and Carl Hintz, secretary-treasurer.

EDUCATION CLUB

THE Education club was formed on the DePauw campus in 1928, but already its work ranks high among departmental organizations. Membership in this club is not exclusive as in many other clubs of the sort, but is based upon a minimum of nine hours work in the department. Scholarship is not an essential factor, inasmuch as everyone interested in educational matters is invited to join.

Meetings are held once a month, and are conducted by a speaker on some problem of the teaching profession. Outside speakers for this year include Dr. Wright of Indiana university and Miss Blanche Wellons, who supervised the English courses in Indiana university and Bloomington high school. While Miss Wellons was here a joint meeting was held with the teachers' association of Greencastle high school.

Officers of the Education club for the past year have been: John Edwards, president; Dorothea Templeton, secretary; Kenneth Wagoner, treasurer; and Esther McCord, program chairman.

EPSILON EPSILON

EPSILON Epsilon was organized at DePauw in 1913 under the leadership of Prof. Rufus T. Stephenson, head of the department of Greek literature. It is a club for students interested in Greek literature and art, all members of the Greek department being eligible.

This club attempts to inspire a finer appreciation of the worth of Greek culture—its influence upon our own literature and drama—and to foster love for art.

Although Epsilon Epsilon has not as yet carried out its policy this year, it has been the custom to present annually the play "Antigone" by Sophocles, written in 450 B. C. The object of presenting this play is to give opportunity for a better understanding of extant Greek tragedy. At regular meetings of this club papers on matters of Greek culture are presented. Once a year Professor Stephenson gives an illustrated lecture dealing either with Greek art or drama and literature.

Officers of Epsilon Epsilon for the past year were: Richard Crowder, president; Pauline Townes, vice president; James Link, secretary-treasurer.

HISTORY CLUB

HISTORY club, sponsored by the history department, is limited to junior and senior majors who qualify scholastically for membership, and to all faculty members of the department.

The club meets once a month at which time the members discuss problems of historical interest, read papers, and hear talks by outside speakers. These speakers are men prominent in their field of endeavor, and when they address the club the meetings are often open to the student body.

After each lecture general discussion is held on the topic under consideration. Members are invited to express their own views on the subject, or to ask questions of the person in charge of the meeting. Some of the matters discussed this year include: current changes in the background of Europe, the great wall of China, and the possibilities afforded to the graduate student.

Officers in the club for this year were: Lynn Whitehead, president; Willard Gambold, vice president; Martha White, secretary; and William Springer, treasurer.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

THE Home Economics club was organized in 1922 in order to create a greater interest in the work of this department. The club makes money for departmental needs, and studies the work of women in the different phases of home economics. Membership includes only those majors in the department who have as many credit points as hours. Meetings are held in the home management house, which is a special project of the club.

Members of the Home Economics club are divided into groups, each of which carries out a different money-making program. At the meetings of the club, reports are given, as well as lectures, on such subjects as tea room management, dietetics, and child welfare. Interest is maintained in the practical aspects of these fields.

Faculty sponsors of this club are from the department of home economics. Officers for the past year were: Edna Voltz, president; Vivian Pomeroy, secretary; Dorothy Thomsen, treasurer.

LATIN CLUB

THE oldest departmental club on the DePauw campus is the Latin club, organized by Dean Edwin Post in 1896. Members of this club are elected from majors in the Latin department, and students who have had as many as sixteen hours in the department.

The purpose of the Latin club is to bring together students interested in this field, to stimulate interest in Latin literature and its influence upon present-day civilization, and to study Roman life in its bearings upon later times. The faculty members of the Latin department act as sponsors.

Latin club meets once a month, on the third Thursday. At the meetings papers written by members of the club are read and discussed. These deal with the customs, history, and problems of Latin and of the Romans. One interesting paper this year was a play written and read by Richard Crowder.

Officers for the past year were: Norman Ferguson, president; Lucille Hunt, vice president; Vivian Reeder, secretary.

NAPIERIAN CLUB

NAPIERIAN club gains its name from John Napier, one of the greatest scientists and mathematicians of the seventeenth century. His books, Mirific Logarithmorum Canonis Descriptio, and Rabdologia, and Constructio, are still considered among the best treatises on mathematics. Napier, Laird of Merchiston, was the inventor of logarithms.

Membership in Napierian club is elective, open to majors in the department and students of high scholastic average who are enrolled in advanced mathematics courses. Faculty members of the mathematics department are sponsors of the club.

Meetings of this club are held once a month, papers being given on phases and subjects of mathematics that are not taken up in the classroom. Stress is placed on the relation of mathematics to everyday life, and contemporary discoveries and new theories pertaining to science are advanced.

Napierian club officers for the past year included: Howard Fetters, president: Lenore Ruark, vice president; Mary McCord, secretary; Horace Burnett, treasurer.

PHILOSOPHY CLUB

THE Philosophy club was organized in 1925 under the guidance of Professor L. R. Eckardt, head of the philosophy department, who has since acted as its advisory officer. Membership in the club is composed of majors in the department of high scholastic standing, and others especially interested in this field.

The purpose of this club is to stimulate interest in philosophy upon the DePauw campus, and to mold a more intellectual trend of thought among students. Current literature in the field is discussed at the meetings, and faculty members of other departments are invited to speak to the club. It has always been the custom for an outside speaker of note to lecture once a year before the members.

Last year the Philosophy club began the project of building up a philosophy alcove in the University library. At graduation each member presents a worth-while book, in order to increase and improve the collection.

Officers in the club for the past year have been: Natalie Roberts, president; Philip Young, vice president; Dale Stackhouse, secretary-treasurer.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CLUB

THE Religious Education club was organized at DePauw in 1925, and has grown steadily. Students who are interested in religious work, primarily majors in the department of religious education, make up the membership of the club.

The purpose of this club is to provide an opportunity for study not afforded in classroom discussion, and to carry on research in the field of religious education. Meetings are held on the third Thursday of each month, programs being presented by student members of the club and by professional leaders in the field of education. The club has devoted considerable time to a consideration of the religious problems of the DePauw campus in an effort to be a useful and vital factor in the life and interests of the school. At the monthly meetings subjects concerning the relationship of education and the church are discussed.

Officers of the club for the past year have been: Ann Morrison, president; Eleanor Mann, vice president; Antoinette Andrews secretary; Allan Heil, treasurer.

RICARDO CLUB

RICARDO club has had the distinction of being the only departmental club on the campus with unrestricted membership. The meetings are open, and anyone interested in economics is invited to attend.

A unique method of control has been devised by this club. Once a year there is a board of directors chosen, consisting of one member from each class in economics. From these the officers are chosen. The requirements for membership on this board of control are that the directors be majors or minors in the economics department, and that they have a good scholastic average.

Meetings of Ricardo club are held twice a month in one of the University buildings. The club programs deal with economic subjects that are not covered in classroom discussion. In this way current problems are brought into the field of knowledge of the student, and linked with the broad science of economics itself.

Officers of the board of directors for this last year have been: Charles Hutchinson, president; and Wanda Lee Lavengood, secretary-treasurer.

SCIENCE CLUB

ORGANIZED in 1929, the Science club is now one of the largest and most active departmental clubs on the DePauw campus It is a club of varied interests, being made up of students from the five science departments: physics, geology, chemistry, botany, and zoology.

Membership in the Science club is restricted to junior and senior majors in science, and is based on outstanding ability. Meetings are held once a month, the subject of discussion rotating from one department to another. Once a year the club endeavors to hold an open meeting with some prominent scientist as speaker. The subject is presented in a manner so nontechnical as to be of interest to the general public as well as to students majoring in science.

An original method of government has been devised by members of this club. It is controlled entirely by a faculty administrative committee; consisting of one member from each science department in the University, and a student secretary. The secretary for the past year has been Lucille Wade.

TOYNBEE

TOYNBEE was named in honor of Arnold Toynbee, the famous sociologist. It is an honorary club for majors in the department of sociology, membership being entirely elective. Founded in 1909 by Dr. C. C. North, it has continued successfully ever since.

Meetings are held on the second and fourth Thursday evenings of the month. The purpose of the club is threefold: to promote interest in sociological research, to bring forward an understanding of social work, and to form a medium of acquaintance for major students.

Each year the members of Toynbee take trips to charitable corrective institutions. The program this year included visits to the poor farm just outside of Greencastle, the Juvenile Court of Indianapolis, and the tuberculosis sanitarium in Putnam county. At regular meetings of the club papers and reports were given upon sociological questions. During the year prominent lecturers were invited to the campus.

Officers of Toynbee for the past year have been: Kenneth Williams, president; Martha Eller, vice president; Marian Emery, secretary-treasurer; and Lucille Smith, program manager.

DEPARTMENTAL CLUB RÉSUMÉ

THROUGHOUT the years, from earliest days until now, the departmental club has been a large factor in the development of this University. Its importance can hardly be over-estimated. It functions socially as a medium through which students and teachers can become better acquainted, and scholastically bettered in promoting outside research by students and instructors.

From the founding of the Platonean Society in 1838 many clubs have existed. Some of these have had mushroom growth, but others, such as the Latin club which celebrates its thirty-fifth anniversary this year, have grown steadily and given many worth while contributions to campus life.

It is interesting to look back through the files of old Mirages into DePauw club life of the nineteenth century. Clubs during the eighties and nineties wandered from one extreme to the other. The Theological Lyceum, founded in 1883 in the theological school, certainly did not have the same aims as the Styx club whose purpose seemed vague, but whose colors were pink, blue, and cardinal.

The first truly departmental organization was the Author's club, started in 1894. Later in the same year other departments began to adopt the idea of a specialized group, and the Sociological club and Le Cercle Francais were formed. In 1896 the present Latin club came into existence.

There were other organizations on the campus at this time, however, whose purposes were not quite so serious. Most notable among these was the Spooks club. According to its statements it was founded during the revolution for the prevention of cruelty to ghosts. Some of its officers were the High Spooky Spook and the Low Spooky Spookess. Another group of note was the Red Headed club, whose name speaks for itself, and whose president was called the grand headlight. There was also the Matrimonial League and the Hooka Beta Phi Angling club, with the motto: Ich kam; ich fischte; ich fing.

Today there are twelve departmental clubs on the campus. From the oldest—established in 1896—to the youngest ones—the Education and the Science clubs founded in 1928—we find an outline of the activities of DePauw. It is interesting to note the development of club life. Many of these have persisted only after struggles, but in their varied operations we find an index to the present interests of the University.

BROOKLYN CLUB

BROOKLYN club is an interfraternity organization, primarily a bowling club, which has become a pep organization as well. Organized at DePauw in 1922, it became a member of the National Collegiate Bowling League in 1925.

The club sponsors intramural bowling and awards a trophy to the winner of the tournament. Its members sponsor organized yells at games, and boost athletics generally. Bringing members of all fraternities together, informally, as it does, Brooklyn club has a real social value.

Coach Raymond R. Neal and Captain B. B. McMahon are honorary members of the organization. The officers for the past year were: Sam Wasmuth, president, and Hal Binyon, secretary-treasurer.

CHICAGO CLUB

THE Chicago club consists of students whose homes are in Chicago or its vicinity. The club is now in its second year and is pushing ahead in its purpose of fellowship and cooperation and for the furthering and maintaining of loyalty and social interest after graduation.

One of the features of the club is its annual dinner dance during the Christmas vacation which was held again this year at the Terrace Gardens of the Morrison hotel. A similar dance was held during spring vacation at the Blackhawk Restaurant and plans are made for several dances to be held during the summer months.

The club is gradually becoming more prominent on the DePauw campus as each year we find an increasing number of students from this region entering DePauw.

With the DePauw Alumni Association of Chicago sponsoring the organization, it has great possibilities for future development.

Donald Eaton has been the active president during the two years of the club's existence.

METHODIST STUDENT UNION

THE Methodist Student Union is an organization created to take the place of the Epworth League and other young people's organizations among students. It consisted, originally, of members appointed by the various churches, but it is now entirely a student organization, whose council is self-perpetuating. The plan, begun last year as an experiment, has proved itself successful.

Student Union services are held at 6:30 every Sunday evening, and are well attended by both students and townspeople. Among the speakers of national and international reputation which the Student Union has brought to the campus are the Grand Duchess Marie of Russia, Count von Luckner, Dr. Gugliemo Ferrero, Bishop Hughes, Rabbi Feuerlicht, and Dr. Henry Hitt Crane.

The president and only officer of the council for the past year has been Otto Behrens.

OXFORD CLUB

THE Oxford club was organized at DePauw in 1921, and is a chapter member of the national Oxford Fellowship. It is an inter-denominational organization of student preachers, formed with the purpose of promoting "the challenge of the Christian ministry."

Meetings are held every two weeks. The club's program this year has been largely an educational one, and the meetings have been addressed by President Oxnam, Professor Tilden, and Dr. Bundy.

Professors Hildebrand, Lytle, Bartlett, and Jones have sponsored the work of the club. The officers during the past year were: Ray Ragsdale, president; Harold Jack, vice-president; Herbert Bennett, secretary; and Vernon Loescher, national correspondent.

WOMEN'S RIFLE CLUB

RIFLE club is an organization of women who are especially interested in rifle markmanship. It sponsors inter-house, inter-class, and individual matches as well as those with other colleges.

W. S. A. points are given for membership on house and class teams, sweaters are presented to the members of the varsity team, and a cup to the girl who has the best individual record for the season.

Delta Delta Delta was the winner of the inter-house tournament, and the sophomore class won in the class matches. Intercollegiate matches were fired with such colleges as the U. of South Dakota, U. of Nebraska, U. of Maine, U. of Kentucky, Iowa State U., Pennsylvania State college, U. of Washington, Michigan State college, U. of California, and Cornell U.

The officers of the club for the past year were: Virginia Stair, president; and Ann Nichols, secretary-treasurer. Mary Niblack has been rifle manager.

KAPPA TAU KAPPA

THE black eagle symbolizes one of the highest honors that senior men may receive. Kappa Tau Kappa, founded in 1902, was established as an organization for the purpose of bettering inter-fraternity relations. This representative group also endeavors to create an understanding between fraternities and the administration.

Aside from its general purpose Kappa Tau has taken over the special responsibility of sponsoring the annual stag banquet for athletic recognition, presenting a cup to the fraternity making the highest scholastic average, supervising the Old Gold Day contests, and maintaining a weekly exchange of inter-fraternity guests.

In the past year the organization has expanded to take on the responsibilities of an absolute inter-fraternity council. Representatives from the three remaining groups were added and Kappa Tau became a member of the National Inter-Fraternity council.

It has sponsored the installation of a set of rush rules for men to be used for the first time in the fall of 1931.

The organization functioned socially this year, and for the purpose of breaking the routine of examination week its members staged a free afternoon dance during final week.

For the year 1930-1931 Richard Wurst was president, and Howard Fetters was secretary-treasurer.

RÉSUMÉ OF FRATERNITIES

FRATERNITIES have so long been a part of the campus life at DePauw that they merit more of a true consideration of their worth and meaning to the school than they ordinarily receive. Over seventy per cent of the men of the University are included among the fraternity groups and they have a strong influence over campus affairs.

The first fraternity was established here in 1845, thirty-nine years before the University exchanged the name of old Asbury for DePauw. At that time Beta Theta Pi planted its Delta chapter in Greencastle and held a lone fortress until the arrival of Phi Gamma Delta in 1856, to be followed in its turn by Sigma Chi three years later. In 1865 Phi Kappa Psi established a chapter and in close succession came Delta Kappa Epsilon, Phi Delta Theta, and Delta Tau Delta. Delta Upsilon entered the campus in 1887, and Sigma Nu in 1890. The nineteen hundreds brought the addition of Lambda Chi Alpha, Alpha Tau Omega, Commons Club, Theta Kappa Nu, and Delta Chi. Men's Hall organized locally in 1923.

In the course of their existence these fraternities have been forced to hold their meetings first in rented rooms of private dwellings, later in halls above the business houses, and finally in the houses destined to be designated as the center of American collegiate fashions and manners.

Few men enter the University who have not heard of fraternities, their fun, and always exaggerated pranks and practical jokes. Such is their reputation off the college campus. However, the freshman soon learns that there is a great honor and benefit to be found in the fellowship of a friendly group. To him the fraternity affords not only wooden paddles and mail duty, but also a high ideal that inspires him to become a polished gentleman, a man of responsibility, and a congenial member of a social organization—faculties that will prove indispensable after his graduation.

Fraternity life offers a home atmosphere to the college man that is lacking in most dormitories. In such an atmosphere it is a little more difficult to become homesick, and a little easier to get over the disease once afflicted.

University activity in general is motivated by fraternity backing. Organized men sponsor intramural athletics, maintain campus society, pursue scholarship cups, and support departmental clubs and honoraries.

Cooperation makes for a smooth running machine and is a necessary factor in any institution, be it a machine shop or a university. Fraternities cooperate readily with the administration and its projects and often add incentives to its purposes. The school is judged to a large extent by the kind of men found among fraternity groups, and thus is their responsibility doubled to themselves and to their school.

sororities

PAN-HELLENIC COUNCIL

EACH sorority elects a junior and a senior to serve as representatives on the Pan-Hellenic council. At the regular monthly meetings, not only does the council deal with local problems existing among the sororities in regard to social matters, but it also promotes the national aims by regulating pledging, providing mutual understanding, and raising scholastic standards of the campus groups.

Greater cooperation among sororities on the DePauw campus is insured by this council. Each group has its problems which the council can help to solve by general comparison and discussion. One valuable function of the organization is the formation and enforcement of rules governing rushing.

Each year Pan-Hellenic council holds a scholarship banquet for all girls in the university who made forty points during the first semester. A cup is awarded to the group with the highest scholastic standing.

The Valentine formal dance is now an annual custom. Representatives of different classes within campus groups are invited.

Officers for the past year were: Lucile Hunt, president: Dorothy Valentine, secretary-treasurer.

RÉSUMÉ OF SORORITIES

FROM the founding of Kappa Alpha Theta, mother of all sororities, in the days when DePauw was old Asbury, until the present day, some inspired women have put Greek letters together and formed sororities, of which, chapters have found their way to DePauw. There are now ten of these organizations on the campus, of which, Kappa Alpha Theta and Alpha Chi Omega are mother chapters.

Following the establishment of Kappa Alpha Theta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Alpha Chi Omega, and Alpha Phi took root upon the campus. Later, other combinations were devised, and from their number Alpha Omicron Pi, Delta Delta Delta, Delta Zeta, Alpha Gamma Delta, Phi Omega Pi, and Kappa Delta made their appearance. Each of these groups is a national organization in good standing.

On DePauw's campus the relation between the various groups is most friendly, due no doubt, to the ruling of the college which compels all sorority pledges to spend their first year in the women's dormitories. Friendships are formed during that period that last through the entire college career. Then, too, DePauw has the decided advantage of small chapters, which by cooperating with each other, facilitate further friendships.

The Greek letter organizations add to the beauty of the University by contributing beautiful residences, but more important among the things they do is the creating of a home-like atmosphere for their members. Another duty they perform is the training of each individual so that she may at once live in harmony with the group and yet maintain her individuality. Naturally, it may be thought that sororities have their disadvantages, but judging from their popularity among the young girls of today, it can be seen better that the adavantages must outweigh the disadvantages.

Sororities add to college life not merely socially, but develop pride of organization, arouse ambition, and promote college allegiance. Beyond the school spirit, there is the sorority loyalty that is fine, true, and lasting.

It is generally recognized that such organizations endeavor to embody the highest ideals of the true college woman, to fill a definite social need by offering a means for securing true companionship, and to provide a medium through which wider contacts may be formed.

honoraries

SIGMA DELTA CHI

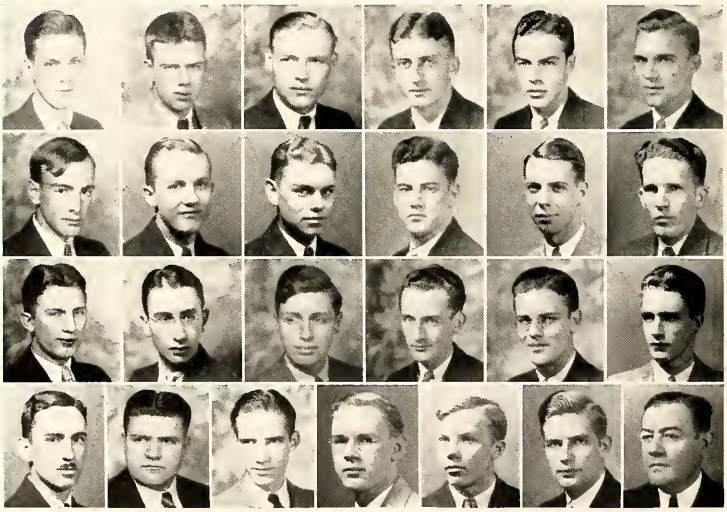
SIGMA DELTA CHI, national professional journalistic fraternity, is one of the outstanding organizations on the campus, principally because its activities include those in which the greatest number of students are involved.

Among these are the scholarship cup and national essay awards. The annual gridiron banquet is so well known that it is a source of vital interest as well as consternation to the "rating" men of the campus. The journalistic activities in which members of the organization are engaged include the Yellow Crab, The DePauw, the DePauw Magazine, and the Mirage.

Members are elected to Sigma Delta Chi on the basis of scholarship, journalistic activities and intentions, and character. DePauw sponsored the founding of the first chapter in 1909. Through a process of gradual and careful expansion the organization has increased until it contains a total of thirty-nine undergraduate chapters in the United States and Canada.

The habit of parading the black stetsons with the white Greek letters is inevitably linked with the name Sigma Delta Chi.

Meetings are held once a week throughout the school year. During the past year Joseph Taylor, president of this chapter and editor of The DePauw, was delegate to the national fraternity convention held at Columbus, Ohio. The other officers were: Maurice McEvoy, vice-president; Paul Boyer, secretary; John Moore, treasurer.



Top Row—J. Taylor, P. Young, L. Freehafer, P. Boyer, R. Lowe, R. Wurst.
Second Row—J. Moore, T. Wiant, M. Kennedy, W. Lee, F. Bridwell, M. McEvoy.

ALPHA DELTA SIGMA

ALPHA DELTA SIGMA, national professional advertising fraternity was installed at DePauw last year. This group is organized to serve the undergraduate man interested in advertising as a profession. DePauw has long felt the need of an organization which would stimulate the interest of college men in the field of advertising and to assist them in this career.

The first chapter of Alpha Delta Sigma appeared at the University of Missouri in 1913; there are now twenty-seven chapters. Members profit by the fact that the fraternity is affiliated with the Advertising Club of the World and the vocational employment bureau maintained by it.

Every chapter of the organization conforms to the custom of adopting for itself the name of some prominent advertising man. The DePauw group has chosen the name of Walter B. Cole, former national treasurer of the fraternity, and assistant advertising manager of the Studebaker corporation at the time of his death last year.

Charter members of the chapter are: Theodore Callis, Stanley Murray, Donald O'Rear, Robert McDermond, John Shaw, and Robert Lewis. Officers for this year were: John Hughes, president; and Robert McDermond, secretary-treasurer.

Second Row—R. Lewis, O. Carpenter, K. Olsen, J. Pollock, C. Tyler.

THETA SIGMA PHI

THIS national women's journalistic fraternity, Theta Sigma Phi, installed its Sigma chapter at DePauw in 1919. Members are elected from junior women who display unusual journalistic ability and interest.

Orchid and green ribbons back the pen points which distinguish pledges of the organization, traditionally chosen on Old Gold Day. Active members wear a gold matrix bearing the Greek letters and a symbolic torch.

Besides encouraging members to journalistic activity, Theta Sigma Phi annually publishes the Old Gold Day and May Day editions of The DePauw. Theta Sig also has its razz banquet, Matrix Table. Here coeds who "rate" are satirized, and ludicrous awards are given to a "chosen few". Every spring the organization gives a tea for all women majoring and minoring in journalism.

Recognition of coed merit is made by awarding a cup each year to the most representative senior woman.

Officers for the past year were: Frances Cauble, president; Harriet Martin, vice president; Mary Niblack, treasurer; Jane Isackson, secretary.

Top Row—F. Cauble, M. Niblack, H. Martin, J. Isackson, K. Tofaute.

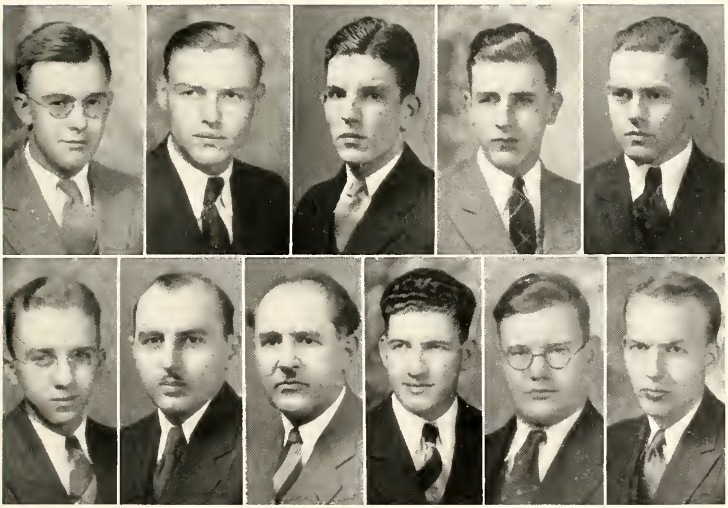
ARTUS CLUB

THE local chapter of Omicron Delta Gamma, commonly known as Artus club, national economics fraternity, was established on June 7, 1927. This organization is composed of major students in economics who have maintained a high scholastic average.

The organization was founded at the University of Wisconsin in November, 1916, and now has twelve chapters. It aims to encourage interest in the study of economics and the application of the principles learned to solving modern problems.

At the bi-monthly meetings papers are read, discussion conducted, and numerous current problems considered. The group aims to foster cooperation between the department and students and to broaden the horizon of economic considerations by bringing to the campus outstanding speakers in the various fields of economics.

The officers this year were: Earl Keaton, president; Joseph Hutchins, secretary; and Lytle Freehafer, treasurer.



Top Row—R. Lewis, L. Freehafer, D. Lord, J. Hutchins, E. Keaton.

MU PHI EPSILON

MU PHI EPSILON, honorary musical fraternity for junior and senior women, installed its Zeta chapter at DePauw on December 9, 1905 and was later re-established on June 7, 1919. The organization, national in scope, was founded in 1903 at the Metropolitan College of Music in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Election to Mu Phi Epsilon is based on high scholastic standing in the School of Music and talent or activity in some special field in music. Pledges are selected from women of the sophomore class.

Activities during this year included a chapel program and Sunday evening vesper service; the annual tea given for all freshman and sophomore women in Music School; regular monthly programs at the different houses; and a breakfast in honor of Olga Steeb, a visiting artist.

Officers for this school year were: Marcia Weissgerber, president; Gwendolyn Yuncker, vice president; Adeline Kriege, treasurer; Mary Adeline Fausset, secretary.

Top Row—A. Kriege, R. Johnson, I. Yates, H. Snider, D. Templeton, M. Weissgerber.

Second Row—E. Mullen, I. Gauld, D. Rodgers, G. Schlosser, M. A. Faussett, M. Magill, G. Yunker.

PHI MU ALPHA

LAMBDA of Phi Mu Alpha, or Sinfonia, national honorary musical fraternity, was installed on the DePauw campus March 14, 1924. Its particular aim is to promote fraternal friendship among those interested in music.

The New England Conservatory of Music, Boston, Massachusetts, claims the honor of having the Alpha chapter which was founded in 1896.

Among its activities for the year the chapter includes two chapel programs conducted by members of the organization, a program at the regular Sunday evening student service, and the distribution of the song book containing school and fraternal songs.

At the meetings held once every two weeks a strong feeling of co-operation and fellowship is promoted among those men students who claim music as the chief one among their interests.

The officers for this year were: Howard Thompson, president; Marshall Howenstein, vice-president; Carl Von Brock, secretary; Professor Greenleaf, treasurer.

Top Row—H. Thompson, H. Rothert, C. Von Brock, W. Weddle, H. Trisler, H. Ross, M. Howenstein.

Second Row—T. Hadley, A. Robinson, W. Hildebrand, H. Isley, P. Brown, L. Dropsey, W. Yeager.

Third Row—R. Matthies, R. Crowder, R. Stokes, Prof. Gale, Prof. Umfleet, Prof. Bartlett, Prof. Greenleaf.

SCABBARD AND BLADE

SINCE 1923 Scabbard and Blade, honorary military organization, has been an integral part of the R. O. T. C. unit on the DePauw campus. Among the sixty-seven companies in colleges and universities of the United States, the local group is designated as "A" Company of the Fifth Regiment.

This chapter is a part of the national organization perfected at the University of Wisconsin in 1904 to assist in the work of the military training units of the country. Membership in the organization is purely dependent upon outstanding military work and manly character.

Chief among the endeavors of Scabbard and Blade is to foster interest in military work since military training is no longer compulsory at DePauw. It aims to create sufficient interest and understanding of the work of the department in order to maintain its efficiency.

Officers of the unit were: Paul Boyer, captain; Edwin Boswell, first lieutenant; Fred Axtell, second lieutenant; and Howard Fetters, first sergeant.

Top Row—R. Orr, F. Wuelfing, F. Axtell, E. Keaton, R. Matthies, P. Boyer.

Second Row—W. Bailey, H. Fetters, E. Boswell, R. Heritage, D. Dykeman, W. Naftzger.

Bottom Row—C. Hutchinson, J. Voliva, D. Copeland, J. Pollock, E. Bingaman, J. Stafford.

ALPHA MU PI

ONE of the first signs of spring on the DePauw campus is the activity of Alpha Mu Pi. The group is composed of feminine sponsors of the University military unit and is one of the most attractive features of the weekly formations. Their white uniforms, broad gold ribbons, and trim manoeuvers are a considerable factor in enlivening the reviews.

Alpha Mu Pi is a national sorority which was chartered at DePauw in 1924. The active organization and the military students cooperate in selecting pledges. Wives of the general staff officers are honorary members of the organization.

The new pledges, selected from the sophomore class, may be recognized when they parade the campus for several days with officers' caps, wooden guns, and offering salutes to their superior officers.

Each year at the time of national inspection of the military unit, Alpha Mu Pi gives a tea in honor of the national officers.

Officers during the past year were: Dorothy Thomsen, president; Dorothea Bufler, vice president; Mary Niblack, secretary; Dorothy Rodgers, treasurer.

Top Row—M. Niblack, D. Bufler, D. Rodgers, D. Thomsen.
Bottom Row—J. Rhoades, M. E. Baldwin, R. Rutter, E. Watts, K. Tofaute.

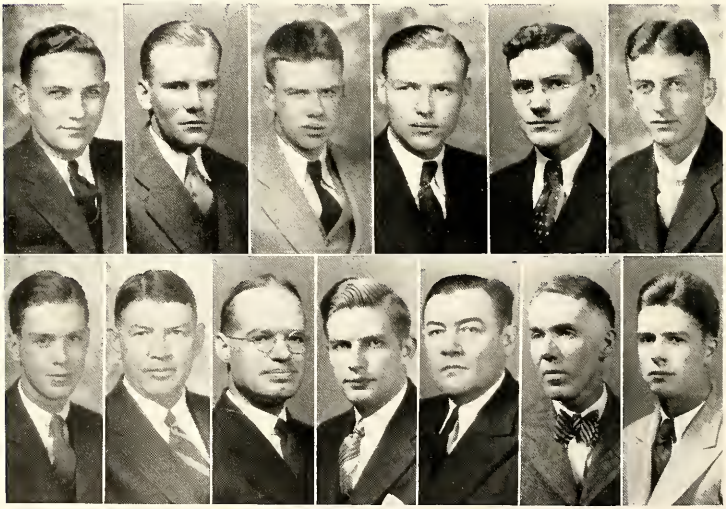
BLUE KEY

BLUE KEY is organized on the fundamental principle of "Service". It is the highest recognition of a man's service to DePauw, election being based on scholarship, character, and participation in at least one activity.

This senior honorary society was founded at the University of Florida in 1925 and has spread until it numbers forty-two chapters. Near the close of the year the seniors chose their successors from the most outstanding men of the junior class. These nominations are subject to the approval of the faculty.

The object of the group is to promote the joint interests of the student body and the administration. The members are well able to cope with pertinent campus questions and act as mediators because the membership includes the men most active on the campus and several professors who are in close contact with the undergraduates.

During the past year John Hughes has served as president. The other officers were: Philip Young, vice-president; Edwin Boswell, secretary; and Robert Orr, treasurer.



Top Row—J. Hughes, R. Orr, P. Young, L. Freehafer, J. George, P. Boyer.

MORTAR BOARD

THE highest honor that can come to a senior woman is membership in Mortar Board. This national organization was founded in 1918 at Syracuse, New York, by representatives from senior honorary societies at the University of Michigan, Cornell university, Swarthmore college, and Ohio university. The DePauw chapter was established the following year.

Scholarship, leadership, and service, the guiding principles of the fraternity, are the standards for the selection of new members. Active members choose their successors from the junior class, and these must be approved by the dean of women. Those receiving such recognition are "capped" at the May Day breakfast.

Through close friendships developed within the group and through teas given during the year, Mortar Board provides a quiet working force between students, campus units, and the faculty.

Mrs. G. Bromley Oxnam, wife of the president, is an honorary member of the organization whose other sponsors include Dean Katherine S. Alvord, Miss Dade B. Shearer, and Miss Minna Mae Kern. Lucille Wade served as president of Mortar Board during the past year.

Top Row—B. L. Hunter, M. McCord, J. Isackson, L. Wade.

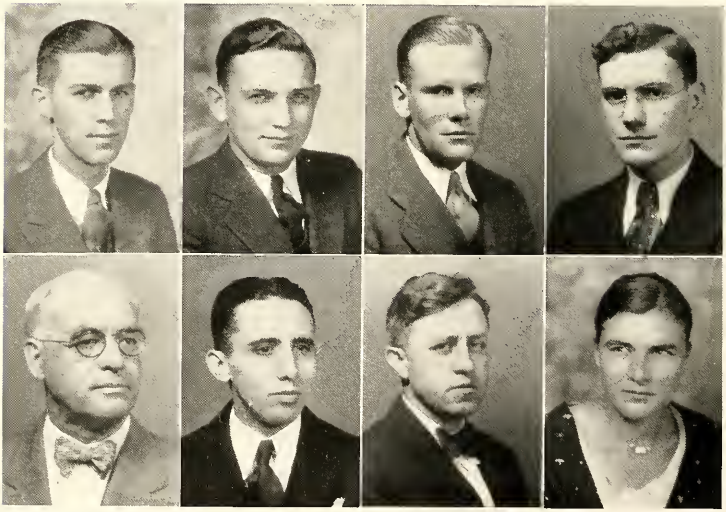
DELTA SIGMA RHO

ONE of the highest recognitions in the department of speech at DePauw is the election to Delta Sigma Rho. It is the ultimate ambition of the DePauw debater to wear the symbolic gold key of this organization.

The founders are Prof. E. F. McDermott of the University of Minnesota and Prof. E. Gordon of the University of Iowa whose main desire was to "encourage serious and effective public speaking". Their ideal was realized April 13, 1906 when the first chapter was installed. The local charter was granted in 1915; the organization now includes sixty chapters.

Participation in intercollegiate debate is required for membership. New members are elected annually following the close of the debating season. Seniors who have taken part in debates, and juniors and sophomores with two or more years of experience on the forensic stage are eligible.

During the past year, the officers of the fraternity were: Roland Matthies, president; Robert Orr, secretary and treasurer.



Top Row—R. Matthies, J. Hughes, R. Orr, J. George.

Bottom Row—Prof. H. B. Cough, Prof. H. T. Ross, Prof. R. E. Williams, Miss J. T. McDowell.

NATIONAL COLLEGIATE PLAYERS

PARTICULAR excellence in dramatic projects, exceptional creative work, and valuable participation in campus plays is rewarded with the gold key of the National Collegiate Players, whose motto is Pi Epsilon Delta. This group is the twelfth of some twenty chapters of this organization known all over the country for its high standards in the field of amateur dramatics. The association, founded at the University of Illinois, is especially influential throughout the west and middle west where its principal chapters are located.

The active dramatic organization, Duzer Du, affords the opportunity for dramatic work sufficient for membership in this higher group.

Election of new members of the fraternity is made in the spring, after local nominations and records of candidates have been passed on by the national vice-president of the organization. Such membership is the goal of the DePauw actor and craftsman.

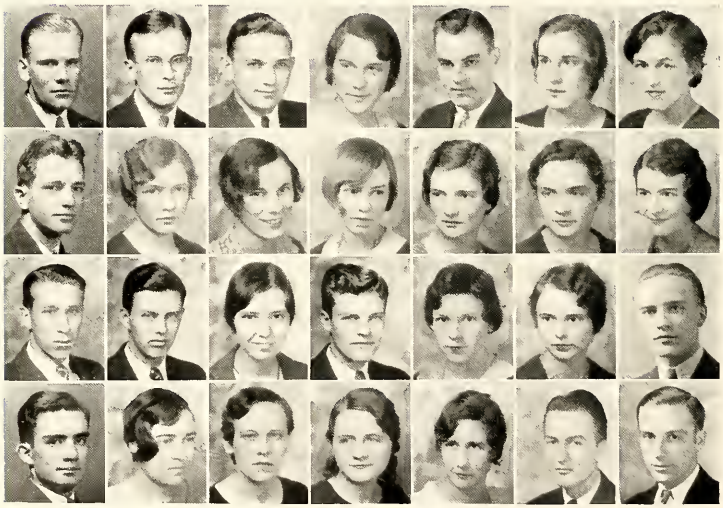
DUZER DU

THE aim of this organization, which is to produce for its audiences the best in plays and production, has been sustained in the dramas offered this year.

The members of the fraternity are elected at semi-annual tryouts on the basis of their dramatic ability. The first pledges are cast for parts in the Christmas play. The play given this year was the first act of "The Fool", which was directed by Helen Dickinson and Richard Crowder.

During the year three full-length plays were produced. These included "Beyond the Horizon", "The Doll's House", and "Holiday". In addition, a play adapted to sixth grade children was presented for them. "The Servant in the House" was enacted for the Northwest Conference of the Methodist Church.

Duzer Du officers for the past year were: Robert Orr, president; Helen Dickinson, vice president; Martha White, secretary; and John Hughes, treasurer and business manager.



Top Row—R. Orr, R. Crowder, J. Hughes, M. White, R. BonDurant, J. Isackson, H. Dickinson.

Second Row—W. Shumaker, H. Foster, G. Gruenewald, O. Gustin, K. Tofaute, R. McMahan, J. Travis.

Third Row—C. Warner, V. Miller, E. DeWees, J. Chesterfield, I. Hadley, S. Crouch, W. Cragen.

Bottom Row—M. Gard, A. Morrison, M. McQuilkin, M. O'Rear, C. Epple, C. Hintz, J. Link.

ASSOCIATION OF WOMEN STUDENTS

THE Association of Women Students is an organization of all DePauw coeds who are represented on the board of control by delegates from every hall and house on the campus. Besides furthering a closer unity between students, A. W. S. assists in orientating freshman women through the Big Sister movement, headed this year by Martha Eller.

A worthwhile project of the past year was the publication of a handbook of the DePauw campus called "Around the Boulder". A cooperative book store in which second-hand books were sold for a small per cent was another feature of the work done by A. W. S. Furthermore the organization sponsored the collegiate musical production, the Monon Revue, written, directed, and presented by the students. In cooperation with Y. W. C. A., A. W. S. held a mass meeting to arouse interest in DePauw's sister college at Madras, India.

The organization was headed this year by Mary McCord, president; Anne Morrison, vice-president; Betty Snow, secretary; and Joan Durham, treasurer.

Top Row—A. Morrison, B. Phelps, R. Wagoner, M. Aikin, M. McCord.
Second Row—C. Aaron, B. DeWees, R. Klamer, J. Durham, K. Tofaute, M. Eller.

Y. W. C. A.

Y W. C. A. on the DePauw campus holds a place of its own. This year under the direction of its officers: Ruth Hall, president; Rozelle Rutter, vice president; Lucille Wade, treasurer; and Margaret Clawson, secretary, the cabinet has been especially active and has completed a number of successful projects.

The regular weekly meetings are supplemented by three interest groups which meet bi-monthly. Cabinet leaders of these groups were: Martha Eller, international contact; Eleanor Peterson, personality; Mildred Farris, social service. The committee heads have been: Caroline Alvord, publicity; Natalie Roberts, social; Clare McKim, program; Charlotte Epple, girl reserve; Adeline Kriege, music chairman.

The advisers this year were Dean Katherine S. Alvord, Miss Dade B. Shearer, Mrs. Byron H. Wilson, Miss Veneta Kunter, Mrs. Harold M. Zink, and Miss Ruth Robertson.

Special activities of the past year included the annual May Day breakfast, a World's Fair given in cooperation with W. S. A., and the establishment of a series of faculty calling days. During freshman week members of the cabinet were on the campus to aid in the activities.

Top Row—A. Kriege, N. Roberts, C. McKim, R. Rutter, L. Wade, R. Hall.
Bottom Row—M. Farris, M. Clawson, E. Peterson, C. Epple, M. Eller, C. Alvord.

PHI SIGMA IOTA

PHI SIGMA IOTA is a national Romance Language society the purpose of which is to promote research in the field of these languages. The organization was founded at Alleghany college, and Professor Hixson of the English composition department was a charter member. It now boasts nineteen chapters. The society was installed on this campus last year.

The members are selected by the faculty members of the organization on the basis of scholarship.

The programs are composed of papers on literary subjects. During the past year an interesting study has been made of modern French and Spanish authors.

The officers of Phi Sigma Iota were: Prof. P. G. Evans, president; Mabel Matthews, vice president; Wayne Shumaker, secretary; and Miss Marguerite Andrade, treasurer.

Second Row—W. Shumaker, L. Stewart, D. Kingman, R. Lee, J. Hupp, I. Cooper.

Third Row—E. Snow, Prof. M. Andrade, Prof. M. Gonzalez, Prof. M. Dimmick, H. Holland, M. Matthews.

ALPHA LAMBDA DELTA

ALPHA LAMBDA DELTA, national scholastic fraternity for freshman women, was founded at the University of Illinois in 1923 to encourage high scholarship on that campus. The extension to other campuses has been quite rapid in the past year. The DePauw chapter, founded in 1926, now has an enrollment of one hundred. Next year the national convention is to be held on this campus.

Last fall a tea was given for those freshman women who were making thirty points or over at mid-semester. In the spring the active members entertained all inactive members at a tea.

Eligibility for membership is based upon the grade point system, with a requirement of thirty-eight points for the first semester or a sum of seventy-five points for the first and second semesters. The fulfillment of this requirement automatically elects the student to membership.

The officers were: Margaret Clawson, president; Martha Vaughan, vice-president; Louise Suhre, secretary; and Jean Davenport, treasurer. The faculty advisors are Dean Alvord and Dr. Lilian Brownfield. The Junior sponsor is Betty DeWees.

Bottom Row, left to right—B. J. Cox, E. DeWees, L. Suhre, M. Clawson, M. Vaughn, M. J. Enochs, R. Fredrick.

Second Row—I. Lowe, A. Amsbaugh, A. Nichol, C. Pratt, M. Carney, G. Herod.

Third Row—M. Jeuckes, W. Abell, A. Nichols, R. Brown, C. Colson.

PHI ETA SIGMA

PHI ETA SIGMA, freshman honor society, was founded at the University of Illinois, March 22, 1923. The purpose of the organization is to recognize scholastic ability and achievement during the first college year in order to stimulate students to greater endeavor.

The worth of the organization, founded by Dean Thomas Arkle Clark, has warranted a nationalization of the fraternity. At present its chapter roll includes ten universities, of which DePauw is the ninth.

A charter was granted to the local chapter April 8, 1929. Those men whose record for the first semester or the entire freshman year averaged thirty-eight points or better, became charter members.

During the past year Prof. Stephen M. Corey has acted as its faculty sponsor. Its officers were: Harvey Quirin, president; Robert Brookes, vice president; Vincent Confer, secretary-treasurer; and Auley McAuley, historian.

Second Row—Prof. S. M. Cory, J. Dula, R. Humphreys, E. Alldredge, J. Link, P. C. Glick, R. Pace, Dean L. H. Dirks.

Third Row—R Gilbert, D. VanVoorhis, F. Thomas, C. Carlson, H. Dirks, H. Quirin, R. Dirks, C. Keppel, G. Rainge.

Fourth Row—J. Gehrig, E. Richard, G. White, C. Confer, R. Brooks, O. Robinson, W. Bottorff, R. Stephenson, G. Baker, A. Magnani.

PHI BETA KAPPA

MEMBERSHIP in Phi Beta Kappa, the oldest of Greek letter organizations, represents a real achievement in the life of an undergraduate, for it recognizes high scholarship.

Phi Beta Kappa was founded at the College of William and Mary, Williamsburg, Virginia in 1776. In the spring of 1889 the Indiana Alpha chapter was established at DePauw.

This year, for the first time, the names of the new members were formally announced at the Phi Beta Kappa chapel on March 27. In the past those elected have been notified through the mail.

At this chapel service Prof. H. W. Voltmer, as president of the DePauw chapter of the society, made the announcement of the honor students. The names of those students elected from the class of 1931 are:

Paul Frederick Boyer
Norman Ferguson
John Morell George
Lucile Marie Hunt
Betty Lou Hunter
James Galbreath Hupp
Mary Catherine McCord
Mabel Eloise Matthews
Nancy Ellen Mattice
Natalie Roberts
Cora Elizabeth Shoup
Charles Wayne Shumaker

RECTOR SCHOLARSHIP FOUNDATION

PROBABLY no one individual has given more to DePauw university than has the late Edward Rector who made possible the Rector Scholarship Foundation. Mr. Rector, deprived of a college education himself has given abundantly of his talents and wealth. Through the generosity of this person and the sympathetic supervision of Dr. Henry B. Longden, the foundation has flourished. Those who profit by it will in turn perpetuate it.

The bequest left by Mr. Rector includes sufficient funds to pay the tuition and fees of 500 men students. The present plan is to award 200 scholarships each year, not only to outstanding graduates of Indiana high schools, but to worthy students from other states. Awards are made each year to the high point students of the various classes. Freshmen may obtain a scholarship by making fifty or more points during their first year. The Rector Scholarship Foundation also maintains a fund from which honor students may borrow.

Mrs. Rector has increased the worth of the foundation by establishing six traveling fellowships amounting to $1,200 each to be awarded annually to either men or women graduates who can qualify.

The class of 1931 was honored by an additional award making the fellowships number seven, the recipients of which are: Lucille Wade, Joseph Taylor, James Hupp, E. Stanley Baker, John George, Wayne Shumaker, and Norman Ferguson.

These fellowships may be applied in graduate work in any leading European or American university. For this splendid opportunity, for the material gifts, for the loan funds, and scholarships, and more especially for the spirit of the donors, DePauw men and women will ever be indebted to Mr. and Mrs. Rector.

RÉSUMÉ OF HONORARIES

THE highly organized character of the University may be explained in part by the tendency for people of common interests to establish contacts. That students of congenial tastes are brought together in the various honorary organizations of DePauw is but one more indication that the campus is a miniature world.

True, it must be granted that many of these organizations are undemocratic in theory and form; their very nature presupposes secrecy and narrowness and their background implies a certain discrimination in membership, but no more than the average social, political, and economic distinctions of typical American clubs.

Admitting the evils of the system, one still finds ample justification for campus honoraries. From the representative nature of Pan-Hel, Kappa Tau, Mortar Board, and Blue Key, which seek to foster student amity, to the definitely professional character of Theta Sigma Phi, Sigma Delta Chi, and Alpha Delta Sigma, each group has a definite place in campus life.

Every aspect of college life is represented by these honoraries. Scholarship is recognized by membership in Alpha Lambda Delta, Phi Eta Sigma, and Phi Beta Kappa. Fraternity problems are discussed by the representative bodies, Pan-Hellenic council and Kappa Tau Kappa, while student-faculty relations are the interest of the senior honor societies, Blue Key and Mortar Board. Journalism is represented by Sigma Delta Chi, and its feminine equivalent, Theta Sigma Phi; advertising is the concern of Alpha Delta Sigma; the musical-minded are organized into Mu Phi Epsilon and Phi Mu Alpha, while Duzer Du, Delta Sigma Rho, and the National Collegiate Players recognize promising students in the department of speech. Economists make up the personnel of Artus club, while Phi Sigma Iota recognizes promising students in the department of romance languages. Members of the local military unit with their sponsors compose Scabbard and Blade and Alpha Mu Pi.

Certainly it is true that small campus triumphs indicate future success in a broader life; and so it is that the contribution of honoraries to a full college career justifies their presence on the DePauw campus.

FOOTBALL

Well kiddies, DePauw's Old Gold gladiators ended the football season last fall at half past two with a decisive victory over the International Correspondence School for the Deaf, Dumb, Paralytic, Maimed in the War of 1812, and Feebleminded. Our boys trounced the invaders to the tune of 6⅞ to 1, and the I. C. S. D. D. P. M. F. would probably have lacked that marker had not our star first baseman, Jahn Leehay, been caught with the queen of spades on the first lead and no protectors. It is estimated by a good authority that the throng witnessing this gigantic spectacle would have filled a good sized press box. Professor Weisnanger has been investigating this estimate and will make public a graph on the subject sometime within the next few years. All receipts were turned over to Crooklyn Club by mistake but court action has been taken to retrieve the funds. The crucial moment of the game came when DePauw took time out in the first round and Robbie Seagull refused to go on with the play because of a broken leg, brain concussion, an attack of appendicitis, and other minor injuries. However, another player was induced to take the fourth hand and the game continued far far into the night. No less spectacular was the performance of old Asbury's men in a foreign importation brought in last year from Brown county without any duty whatsoever. In a dual meet with the University of Oslo our cladly thins annexed more points than were really needed and spent the rest of the day in the registrar's office trying to trade same for others of a purely academic nature. These attempts failed. However, every man carried on in that same high spirit with which he might pay a library fine or interview the dean after a mid-semester D. The game was played on a wet field after dark, thus adding to the sportiness of the event. The audience seemed especially enthusiastic over the second act in which the heroine repulses the villain with an umbrella. During the intermission tea was served in the lobby. Long, tight waisted gowns of organdie and satin were seen in abundance by our correspondent. Many were well worn. Other models included prints by Poiret and homespuns by the League of Woman Voters. Be that as it may, the game finally ended with DePauw well in the lead. The exact score has not yet been ascertained because of the modesty of our players, but you may be sure that their efforts were appreciated and each received his check from the coach immediately following the contest. pressive. These figures follow in brief; get your pencils ready: games played—none, games won—none, games lost—none. From this data it may be gathered that the average appears to be slightly over 1000%. The season was particularly successful because of the few injuries incurred by the players. Outside of a few bruises caused by pop bottle projectiles the team came through unscathed. Umpires were supplied by courtesy of Nickels and Dimes department store, where good fellows get together, and direct from the factory to you. Last but not least enjoyed a fine season. All the meets were runaways for our veteran cinderers. Sixteen games were held and seventeen won including a sectional tilt with Junior High School No. 9 of Stilesville. The contests were well attended by students and townsfolk alike, neither having anything else to do the Sunday afternoons on which the meets are held. If the lengths by which our boys won their respective races were added and placed end to end the sum total would undoubtedly reach to the quadrangle, if there were a quadrangle. Which only goes to show to what lengths DePauw men will go to win a race, or anything else for that matter. Plans are being formulated looking to the establishment of a training camp on the Riviera this summer to which all letter men will be bidden. It is hoped that by this time next year every athlete will be in the pink of condition and the greater number actually able to read and write.

YELLOW GRAB

Yellow Grab, published spasmodically by Stigma Delter X boys, has gone into new fields of endeavor this year. It has changed from the good old racuous humor to the more refined, excellent style which it has taken directly from the pages of other leading publications of the country. The magazine as it now stands is best noted for the fact that it contains two national advertisements, practically nothing funny (which the editors have mistaken to be the way to sophistication), and contributions from famous alumni that have never been heard of before.

The immense popularity of this publication is attested by its some four hundred subscriptions from our student body of sixteen hundred. All of which proves nothing except that by changing the name the publishers might be able to fool a few more customers in the succeeding years. A contest sponsored among the sororities this year is said to have raised the sale of the issue by one tenth of one percent and caused the breaking off of relations between the Theters, Capper Dealts, and Dellter Zetas, who tied for first place.

There is a movement on foot in the university at present to furnish protection to all Grab editors due to the unfriendly feeling of the campus. At each issue, which the student body buys just to see if there is any improvement, (Crooklyn club was taking bets at five to one on the last number) another wave of protest surges over the campus, and the editor has to remain in seclusion for forty-eight hours.

CROOKLYN CLUB

Crooklyn club, most exclusive of organizations on the campus, has limited itself to sixty members this past year. On looking over the material at hand, the president of the group is said to have been dismayed by the lack of good men. Due to this great lack, the Fiddle Tea Thetas, ever loyal supporters of the purple, offered up their senior class for the betterment of the cause.

It is rumored about that Crooklyn club actually sponsored a bowling tournament this year. The tournament was open only to novices, though, so their own members were not allowed to enter. Five other bowlers were found to exist on the campus.

It is expected that when Crooklyn club reaches the moderate sum of one hundred members it may divide and have an honorary within an honorary. The higher division will more than likely become a fair rival to Black and Blue Key in being practically worthless on the campus.

TO THE SENIORS—

We wish you every success that a college education promises.

TO THE JUNIORS—

A wish for success all through your Senior Year.

BLACK AND BLUE KEY

Black and Blue Key, senior men's ornery, may be recognized easily by one of these characteristics: those nice shiny canes which graced the campus from the middle of September until about the end of football season when the boys apparently forgot about them (or maybe put them away to save for the hockey season); their bi-weekly absence from supper at their fraternity houses when they were having their bore out at the Grant hotel (or sundry other places); and their most outstanding custom of parading up and down the track during football games, naturally very self-consciously due to their extreme modesty.

Among the famous members of this fine organization we have such men as Edwin Bloswell who made a name for himself as the originator of the junior prom at DePauw, the first student-managed affair which was put on for the benefit of the student body and not to make money. John Hews, another member, deserves his claim to fame through his work on the junior annual at which time he coined that famous phrase, "according to John Hews, business manager" which appeared so frequently in last year's DePauw.

Black and Blue Key's most outstanding event this year was the taking in to honorary membership Professor H. Slink, of the political science department. It is generally recognized that the boys did this out of absolutely genuine reasons which might be substantiated by the fact that only three out of eight members are majors in this department.
